PREFACE.

It gives me great pleasure to publish in book form the Order Book and Correspondence of General Samuel Elbert, now in possession of the Georgia Historical Society, and to add this volume to the Georgia Historical Society's collections.

The MS. was the property of the late William Neyle Habersham, Esquire, of Savannah, who became its possessor through the connection existing between the Elbert and Habersham families by the inter-marriage of both with the family of Rae.

Mr. Habersham presented this valuable manuscript to the Georgia Historical Society in 1894.

To the Hon. Wm. Harden, Librarian of the Society, belongs the credit of preparing a copy of the MS. for publication, and of correcting the proofs, for which I am deeply indebted to him.

WYMBERLEY JONES DERENNE.

The original from which these pages are printed is in the handwriting of several persons, presumably clerks at headquarters, and it is closely followed in the reproduction, the only changes made being such as to render the meaning intelligible in many places.

Savannah, State of Georgia, 2d Oct., 1776.

Lieut. Col. John Stirk & }
Maj. Seth John Cuthbert }

Gentlemen: The Honorable the Continental Congress having voted two additional Battalions of foot to be raised for the Defence of this State, our convention have done me the honor to appoint me Colonel of the Second or musket battalion and have greatly added to that honor by the appointment of two such Gentlemen of Character and veracity to be my Field Officers, an appointment, be assured Gentlemen, which gives me infinite satisfaction. Let us then unanimously determine to bring into the field as soon as possible a Regiment of brave fellows who may be the Salvation of their Country. For this purpose you are, Gentlemen, to use all expedition in going to the state of Virginia where you will find that Mr. Wereat has distributed all the Commissions in our Regiment to such persons as were capable of raising men. Your first business will be to find out the neighborhood where most of the Officers are and in the nearest village capable of containing and providing for troops establish Head Quarters, then Issue orders for all recruits to be immediately marched thither. Where you find expert clever fellows at recruiting keep them constantly out; you will find many others, I mean officers, fit for nothing but to go to the Drill, which I earnestly enjoin you to keep them constantly at—observe that the terms of enlistment are altered and that the men are to be enlisted to serve during the present War unless they should be sooner discharged by Congress. The men have a Bounty of Seventy dollars and one hundred acres of land who enlist on the above terms; they are to pay for their clothing. Try to get good Muskets; we shall want in the whole Regiment One hundred and twenty good Riflemen to make two flying companies. Do what you can to get good drummers and fifers, at any rate buy some good drums and as none are to be had here you may have the Dragoons marked 1 to 8 with battalion upon them, but no more paint—it spoils the sound of a Drum. If you want money in either North Carolina or Virginia the inclosed order from our Government will procure it, but should that fail loose not a moment in sending word to our Delegates in Philadelphia informing of your situation, and I venture to say it will be forwarded to you without Delay, taking care and a sufficient sum at once in that case. You and Major Cuthbert can divide and take different routs after you are there provided you think your presence among the Recruiting Officers will in the least expedite the business; but after they begin to assemble one of you must be constantly with them and introduce subordination as soon as possible but not with so much severity at first. If my health is sufficiently recovered I intend to follow you in a fortnight, but if I should not your discretion will be sufficient to embody and march the regiment here. Loose not a day in coming when you have upward five hundred men, taking care to leave good recruiting Officers behind you in order to complete.

Let me desire that by every week's post you furnish me with a return of your Strength and Situation and at the same time write your sentiments fully. I wish you success and an agreeable Tour. I am, Gentlemen, very respectfully your most Obedient Servant,
S. E., Col. 2nd Battalion.

Morris' Artillery Company in the morning who are to continue duty by themselves as Capt. Morris shall direct; the Commanding Officer will review the Troops intended for the Expedition at three o'Clock to-morrow afternoon at which Hour they are to be ready, & drawn up in a Rank intire, that he may be the better able to examine the Arms, Accoutrements & Clothing of their men who are to turn out with their blankets and Knapsacks at their backs; he expects that some pains will be taken to make the men appear clean & neat; each man to have Six Rounds of Blank Cartridges & a good flint in his Piece.

Thursday, 1st May, 1777.

The Commanding Officer orders that a Subaltern's Guard do mount regularly every day on board each Transport, the Strength of each Guard to be proportional to the Number of men onboard; the Officer Commanding onboard each Transport to have all their Troops Exercised at some convenient Hour every day, the Arms and Ammunition examined & Kept in the best Order and the Men Stationed to their proper Quarters, so that they may the more readily, without confusion, defend themselves, should they be attacked by an Enemy, as it is very Possible an attempt may be made to surprize one of the Transports in the Night, as we have an Enterprising Enemy to encounter; the method of Challenging & receiving vessells & boats will be given on in Orders. Lt. Colo. Harris is Officer of the day to be relieved by Lt. Colo. Stirk, in which Character those two Gentm. will act Alternately till further Orders; as the fleet goes inland reports from the different Transports to be made to the Officer of the day, who is to report to Commanding Officer; Capt. Mosby who acts as Major to the 2nd Regiment, will likewise act in Character of Brigade-Major to the Troops on the Expedition; he is to attend regularly for Orders & see that they are distributed; The Commissary of Stores & the Officer of the Artillery are as soon as possible to make exact returns of Quality & Quantity of every thing they have in charge; Mr. Seeds is appointed Armourer to the Troops on the Expedition, any of the Soldiers who are capable are to be sent to Assist him—he must be constantly employed in repairing the Arms.

Stirk arrive in time they are to be turned out with the rest, each of them to be served with Cartonet Pouches; every man to have powder in their Horns & wadding in their Pouches in Order to perform firing with blank powder & to preserve Cartridges dry black Moss is excellent Wadding—each soldier is to provide himself with a Sufficient Quantity; the Commanding Officer is sorry to be once more obliged to mention the unsoldier like practice of firing Guns without leave, the great risque of killing one another, added to the uneless expediton of Ammunition, makes it necessary to be observed that an Example will be made the first man that is detected in breaking this positive Order against it, not only of the Person himself but of the Officers of the Company he belongs to, as it must in a great degree proceed from their remissness in duty; Colo. Elbert will be extremely sorry to be obliged to take notice publickly of Officers for carelessness, but as his duty requires it he must and will punish those who deserve it, without favor or partiality.

Polly Transport, 4th May, 1777, St. Catherines.

The Commanding Officer desires that particular attention be paid to the Order of yesterday & that of the first Instant; he will take an Opportunity of going onboard the different Transports in Order to examine the men's Arms & Ammunition; by Applying to Mr. Seeds a little Oil will be obtained to oil the Arms & Keep them from rust; each Soldier is to have powder in his Horn & look to all in their Pouch with proper Wadding, exclusive of the Cartridges in their Pouch, which are to be Kept full with three spare flints pr. man; the Quarter-Masters of the first & Second Regiments are to apply to Capt. Langford for a Hogshead Rum each and serve out to their regiments a Gill pr man pr day; they take care to have exact returns, Certified by the Officers Commanding the respective Companies and Serve agreeable blanks, the Officers are to take care to see an equal distribution.

Sunday, 4th May, 1777. Sailed from the North End of St. Catherines, and on account of the Congress Galley geting on Ground we did not get to the South End till Monday, the 5th, when we came to Anchor off the Indian Narrows; sent Capt. Foster with his pilot boat ahead to get fresh beef at Sapola Island, but he got a ground. Tuesday, 6th, came a Cross the Sound & Anchored a little above

Mrs. McKays House on Sapola. Just when the Galley was burnt by the Enemy, observed on Shoar when a Number of their Shot struck the Trees, that were fired at our people.

Wednesday, 7th, Made sail about 6 o'Clock in the Morning in Order to go with the flood to the dividing leading to the South end of Sapola, where Mrs. McKay sent her Hunters to meet us with some fresh Beef, but having over-stayed our time, after turning up about 3 Miles to the Ebb meeting us, we came to Anchor; at the flood made Sail, worked up to the dividings; on the next Ebb, the Congress worked down to Wolfs Island & we came to Anchor off the mouth of little Sapola Creek.

Thursday, 8th. Remained here all day & in the Evening got six Beeves onboard from Sapola.

Friday, 9th, at high water worked down to Wolfe Island; Saw a Schooner at Anchor near Egg Island, Supposed it to be the Hinchinbrooke; at flood got under way & worked up to her, she proves to be a Schooner from Providence bound to Sunbury, McKenzie, master.

Saturday, 10th. While we lay at Anchor a little above Rackoon point in the mouth of Alatomaha, heard Several Cannon fire to the No'Ward, which we supposed to be the Dolphin in Distress; the Washington Galley returned to her assistance. Sunday, 11th, Came to Frederica, where we were Joined by Lieut. Strother & his party and likewise by Capt. Maxwell with twelve Volunteers from Liberty County to Act with us on the Expedition; Landed & Air'd our men; Frederica was once a pretty little Town as Appears by the Ruins, having been burnt down some years since; the port at this place with a little expense might be made Defensible and might, if Properly Garrisoned, be a means of Protecting great part of our Southern Frontiers; there is about twelve Men, that bear Arms here, in my opinion all Tories—their Capt. Ditter says otherwise of himself and informed me that about 6 or 8 of the Inhabitants had lately gone to Florida for Protection.

Wednesday, 14th May, 1777, Frederica.

All the Troops to be on the Parade exactly at 5 o'clock this Afternoon, each man with Six blank Cartridges, the Riflemen with loose powder in their Horns; the Cartridges to be made of half the Quantity of Powder usual, no man to be excused from Parade but such as the Doctr. makes a return of to the Commanding Officer, at the same time an Exact return to be made of the Number of each Corps on the Expedition; such men as will be at the Trouble to make Mockasines for themselves will be furnished with raw Deer Skin for the Purpose by applying to Lt. Colo. Stirk, who will procure them.

Thursday, 15th May, 1777.

Gave Mrs. Mary Club a Certificate for Six Head cattle rec'd of her; came to-day to the North End of Jekyll where we were informed by Capt. Pannell that he saw two Sail Vessells Standing off and on since Sunday last, he having been sent a head on this Island to procure fresh Beef, without success; Friday he came to the South End of Jekyll; we observe large fires in the Woods between Saintilla & St. Marys, which we suppose to be Colo. Baker; a Woman came onboard the Congress last Night from Amelia, says that they were informed of our approach & that they were preparing to receive us; that Hester's Bluff was fortifying with Cannon & that a large Ship with Guns lay at the Bluff & that Marbury was on a cruise; that Capt. Brown on his return told the Floridians that the Georgians were coming against them with 2,000 Men, that he saw part of the Fleet; a boat from Frederica came to us in the Night with Six Carcasses Fresh Beef.

Saturday, 17th. In the Evening crossed the Sound to Cumberland.

Sunday, 18th. In the Night Arrived at the North End Amelia immediately despatched Lt. Bard with a party men to Secure all the Inhabitants on the island & a party to bring Mills onboard.

South End, Cumberland, 18th May, 1777.

Lieut. Ward:—You are immediately to pick from amongst the Men onboard the Lee Galley about 20 of the most active and Expert that are well armed with about 50 rounds Ammunition & any Volunteers that choose to go with you, & with this Party you are to proceed without a moment loss of time to Amelia Island, in boats Capt. Woodruff will furnish you for the Purpose, and there make Prisoners & Secure any Person on the Island & do all in your power to prevent the Enemy getting intelligence of our Approach; you are to take Samuel Maines as a Guide.—S. E.

North End, Amelia, Monday 19th May, 1777.

Early this Morning we were Joined by fifteen of Colo. Baker's party who gave us the disagreeable accounts of the whole of that party being routed by a Number of Regulars. With the Florida Scout & Indians on Saturday last about 10 o'clock in the forenoon it seems that they were drawn into an Ambuscade & from what we can learn the brave Colo Baker's men deserted him on the first onset, notwithstanding his calling to them to stand & fight, which had they done it would have been no difficult matter to defeat the others as the Indians & Scout ran on a few of our men returning the fire; the boat has just returned with Mr. Wm. Mills, his overseer & School-master; about 10 o'clock this morning heard two Cannon fire towards St. John's River; as they fired at a minute's interval tis supposed the Enemy are apprized of our Approach.

Polly Transport, Amelia Island, 19th May, 77.

A Subaltern with a Sergt. & fourteen Rank & file of the first Regiment to March Immediately with Lieut. Ward & Join his party on the South end of the Island, a Strict lookout to be kept to prevent a Surprize and Stop all Communication with the Enemy; they are to Kill & Salt all the Beef & Hogs they can get, this they are strictly Ordered to do as the fleet is Short of that Article—Lieut. Ward must be careful & not Ill treat any Prisoners he takes, particularly women & Children—the party are to be furnished with 50 rounds of Ammunition pr man.

Thursday, 20th May, Nth. End Amelia.

Landed our Men this forenoon & Ordered them onboard again; the Dolphin has just come up; at 4 P. M. as the Fleet was Getting under way to work up to the Narrows, two of Lieut. Ward's party returned & informed that as the Licut. was hunting Beef he was fired on & Killed & two of his Party wounded, but that our People has beat the Enemy back, who they Judged to be the Island Inhabitants; exasperated at the loss of so fine an Officer and being well informed that yesterday morning a Wm. Pryce went from the Island, informed the Enemy of our approach, I dispatched Lieut. Winfree with Twenty good men with Orders to Burn every house on the Island & destroy all the Stock; a Party has Just come in with Seven Negroes who say they belong to a Mr. Moore; their names are Peter & Nanny, two old ones, & five young named, George, Sally, Lena, Phillis & July.

General Orders.

Amelia Narrows, Wednesday, 21st May, 1777.

A Captain with a Sergt. & fifteen men to march immediately to the South End of Amelia where he is to Join the Troops already there & take upon him the Command; he is to be careful in keeping a strict lookout to prevent a Surprize and should he find too great a Number of the Enemy to oppose he must retreat slowly before them, and send an intelligent man with a small party to the Commanding Officer for a Reinforcement; no pains is to be spared in Collecting all the Beef and Hogs on the Island which he is to have Jerked and cured with the Salt taken by the Party now on the Island.

About three o'clock this afternoon, heard several Cannon fired towards the South End of the Island which we suppose to be at our People, two Sails of the Enemy's Vessells, being seen to-day in Nassau Sound; went in Company with Capt. Nielson to view the Narrows, which at some places is not above Six feet wide and dry at a quarter flood, the turnings being at the same time so short that I Judge it Impossible to get the smallest Galley through them without first taking out her Guns & all the Stores which will be attended with the greatest difficulty, if Practicable at all; some men returned to-day with a few Prisoners, they Confirm the account of our unfortunate Lieutenant Ward being Killed; 8 o'clock; we hear more Cannon, which we suppose to be at Capt. More & his brave fellows who are exchanging a few Rifle Shot with their Armed Vessells in return for Cannon Bullets.

Amelia Narrows, Thursday, 22nd May, 1777.

Wrote the following note to Commodore Bowen: Colo. Elbert presents his Compliments to Commodore Bowen, and will be glad to be informed as soon as Possible whether there appears a probability of his being able to get the Galleys & Transports through Amelia Narrows, in any reasonable time; the Colo. would recommend to the Commodore to have a Council of all the Captains of the Galleys & Transports immediately, and to take their Opinions respecting the matter, each subscribing his name thereto; the Colo. is the more anxious to have this matter determined without loss of time as the Provisions in the Fleet are nearly Expended; that in case the passage of the Narrows should be impracticable, some new mode of Operations should be adopted before tis too late.

Dated, Thursday Morning.

To-day three more of Colo. Baker's men Joined us who say that Eight of them were made prisoners by some of the Florida Scout & Indians, that after a few Hours the Indians fired on them & Killed five in Cool blood, that they took their Heels & made their Escape; they say one McGirt told them that all the Creek-Nation were coming to their assistance against us, that they knew of Colo. Baker's coming by land & his Number & that they likewise knew of the force by water & that they were prepared for us; that a Frigate wth Several Armed Vessells were waiting for us at the mouth of St. John's; sent Capt. Mosby with Sixty Men to land on the Main and reconnoiter the Country for a few Miles round.

Amelia Narrows, 22nd May, '77.

Sir:—On receipt of this you are to Collect your party together and March without loss of time to the Northern End of Amelia Island, two boats are sent to bring what Provisions you have Collected wth other Articles. I think you had best march on the beach next the Sea. Yours, &c.,

S. ELBERT.

To Capt. Moore, or Officer,
Commanding on the So. End, Amelia Island.

Lay from Tuesday Night to Sunday forenoon at Amelia Narrows, which we attempted to pass without success, and on Sunday afternoon returned to the North End Amelia Island.

North End Amelia, 25th May, 1777.

Dear Sir:—After many delays we arrived at this place on the Night of the 18th Inst. I immediately landed Lieut. Ward of the 2nd Regiment with a party of Men with orders to march directly to the South End of the Island and in his way to Secure all the Inhabitants to prevent the Enemy getting information of our approach, being well informed that they had a lookout for us; in this we were not altogether successful, as one man made his escape in a padding Canoe which we were soon convinced of by hearing the Enemy fire their alarm Guns about Eleven o'clock the next morning; this party was fired on the next day by a party of the Enemy, poor Ward killed dead on the spot and two of his men badly wounded; our Brave fellows returned the fire and soon put the others to the rout, the Woods being very thick they could not come up with them; on the morning of the 19th we were Joined by thirteen of Colo. Baker's men, soon after by two more, & two Days after by three others, who all agree in the account of that unfortunate Gentleman being attacked on Saturday, the 17th, by a Superior Number of Regulars who were assisted by the Florida Scout and a *

Up St. Marys, 26th May, 1777.

I wrote the above yesterday with intent to forward to you by return of Capt. Maxwell with some Volunteers who have been some time with us. I am Just now favored by a Letter from Colo. Screven, wrote at your Desire; I lament the Behavior of Colonel Baker's Men, but it will always be the case where Subordination is wanting; this little Success will make the Enemy very Impudent, particularly the Indians; I think from every Information we can get that the Enemy are at present on their Guard, that little can be done, unless by a formidable Invasion, which I Judge to be rather too much for Georgia to undertake till her Forces are put on a more respectable footing, and therefore would recommend confining our Operations intirely to the defensive till a more favorable opportunity; we have too many Secret Enemies amongst us who Keep up a regular correspondence with our Florida Neighbors, and until they are put a Stop to it will be impossible for us to enter Florida without their having timely notice of our approach. I shall send flying Parties of my Virginians on both Sides the River in hopes of their meeting some of the Florida Scouts and Indians, in which case I will answer for it that they give a good account of them; our operations up this River will answer the good purpose of Keeping those Rascals out of Georgia, and at the same time prevent the Floridians geting Supplys and Keep them in Continual alarms and by that means the Grass will be enabled to carry on its approaches against their Corn & Indico with some Success. I find it will be prudent in us for want of Beef to leave this place in a Day or two—and retire to St. Illa; this River I intend to fix a Post on, say, Saint Illa, should I find a good spot on the North side Accessable by Land & Water; pray let me hear your opinion and have your Orders whether I am to remain there, return to Alatomaha, or proceed Southwardly; you can readily convey your Orders by Sending them to us from Fort Howe with a Scouting party of Horse who must fall in with parties I shall Keep Constantly out. If those who have Cattle southward of the Alatomaha are not at this time Busyed in Hunting them they Deserve to loose them, but as they are a Magazine for our Enemies I think the Assembly should direct proper persons to drive them away. If a post is to be continued on St. Illa it can always be Supplied by the Galleys if not established too high up. Yrs., &c.

To Gen. McIntosh.

26th. Sent Colo. Stirk on shoar to penetrate as far as Rain's with about 90 men, to begin his march 10 o'clock at night, & returned next Evening without making any Discovery.

St. Marys River, Tuesday, 27th May, 1777.

A Field Officer with two Captains, four Subalterns, Six Serjts., a Drum & fife and One Hundred Rank & file to be ready to march this Evening with three days' Provisions and Sixty rounds Ammunition pr. man, with each a Spare flint; Lt. Colo. Harris who is to take Command of this Detachment will receive particular Instructions from the Commanding Officer at the time he has Marching Orders.

St. Marys River, 27th May, 1777.

Sir:—I have reason to Suspect that the Enemy have parties of their Scout & Indians at present to the Northward of this River, perhaps between St. Illa & Alatomaha, hunting Beef; I have the best information that they seldom go but in small parties, say from 15 to about 20 to 25 Men; you will land the Detachment under your Command this Evening, at Wright's place on the North side of the River and proceed with the greatest Expedition & Secrecy up the River as far as the ford, and from thence to St. Illa, keeping parties out, to act in such a manner as may effectually prevent the Enemy getting into Florida without falling into your Hands; We shall proceed with the fleet up St. Illa immediately and as soon as we come to a proper place on the North side for a post, shall make a Stand, at which time I shall expect to hear from you; should we arrive at this place without seeing you, we will fire a Cannon for your Information; if you discover us, hoist a Soldier's Coat on a pole till you see the Polly answer the Signal by hoisting a Jack at the main topmast head; we expect to be in the River in three days at which time 'tis probable you will be there. I need not recommend your having strict duty done; wish you success, and am, Dr. Sr., Yrs.,

S. ELBERT.

To Lt. Colo. Harris, Commanding Officer of the Detachment, between St. Marys & St. Illa.

P. S. take Gilder & Lassiter, with you as Guides.

Wednesday, 28th, May.

On Monday Night two Men deserted from the Congress Galley and went over to the Enemy and Last Night two Men from the first Battalion deserted and went likewise to the Enemy; left St. Marys to-day & as we came on the Sound, observed a white flag on a pole, we ran over with the Polly and found it to be three of Colo. Baker's men, of four left on the Island Sunday last by the others who returned home, the fourth was in the woods Hunting & we could not get him, his name is Clark, the others say, he told them he would rather stay where he was, than come onboard the Vessells.

Cumberland Island, 30th May, 1777.

Dear Sir:—Your letter pr Mr. Netherland I recd. two days since; a violent Nth East wind has prevented his sooner return nor was I anxious in sending him back in haste, as in this my letter pr return of Colo. Screven Express to the General must have come to hand, by which the Assembly will be informed of our present situation, and of my Determination with regard to our future operations, which I am glad to find from their Resolves enclosed to me by you, will be nearly agreeable to their wish; I dispatched Lt. Colo. Stirk last Monday Night wth 90 men to make a forced march under cover of the Night and Penetrate as far as the Rains's where I was in hopes he might surprize and make Prisoners of some of the Enemy, by which means I expected to get some information of their Situation, which I am much at loss for; he returned the next evening, without having been able to do any thing; on his return he got another of Colo. Baker's men, who one Mr. Loften was kind enough to Protect & Secret till an Oppy. should offer for him to make his escape. The same Night two men belonging to the Congress and on Tuesday Night two men of your Regiment deserted and are gone to the Enemy; this determined me to loose no time in retreating to St. Illa, as the Enemy will from them be informed of our Strength and what is worse, of our having had nothing but Rice to Eat for five days past; Lt. Colo. Harris with one Hundred Rank & file is gone up the North Side St. Marys as far as the Fort, from which he is to march a Cross to St. Illa & Join us, I am in hopes he will be able to fall in with some of the Florida Scout & Indians in which case I will answer for it, he gives a scurging to double his Number, should there be as many; our brave fellows are in high spirits and wish an opportunity of a Trial of Skil with the Floridians which I would have given them, had I gone to the banks of St. Johns river, did I not too well know the Defenseless Situation of the State to risque so many of the Troops on the Turn of a Die; could we have got the Galleys into St. Johns River, I would, with the men I have with me, made the whole Province of East Florida tumble, but with the Assistance of Vessells to command the river I dont think it would be prudent to cross it with fifteen Hundred Men; However if I am commanded I dare attempt it with half the Number; I am well convinced that a post properly established on St. Illa, where it can be secured by water, will be a great means of Protecting & securing our Southern frontiers; tis my opinion as the Enemy are so well prepared for us, that we should lay by a while & if Carolina will assist us, Join our forces by & by and then with the united force of our Galleys & their Privateers make a powerful Invasion of that Province; in the mean time we can be Arming, Clothing & Disciplining our Men, in each of those they are at present very deficient; I have consulted Commodore Bowen on every Occasion, who has agreed with me in all matters and has ever shown the greatest readiness in forwarding the Expedition. He seems a little disappointed at not having an Opportunity of Exchanging a few shot with Marbury; the Galleys will do well inland, but I cant help thinking that two or three such Vessells as the Hinchinbrook would, if they got them at Sea, give them a Hearty drubbing, this our Enemy was in eager Expectation of, as they knew it to be Impossible for us to Pass Amelia Narrows; I hope soon to see a party of Horse-men from Fort-Howe at St. Illa, with an Answer to my Letter to the General; if we are to proceed immediately, a quantity of Salted Provisions must be sent us by water; pray tell Mr. Clay I will be glad he would apply to the Assembly, now they are sitting, for payment of the 40 prs. Arms I had of him for my Regiment; my respectful Compts. to the General, I am, Dr. Sir. &c. S. E.

To Colo. Habersham.

Cumberland Island, 31st May, 1777.

Dear Sir:—Just as I had Closed my Letter to you Lt. Skinner of the 16 Regiment arrived with a flag of Truce demanding a Second Time, that the Articles of Capitulation made at Fort McIntosh should be fulfilled. Inclosed is a Copy of Major Prevost's Letter to me on that had & my answer thereto, which I beg you will lay before the General and request of him to consult the Assembly on the proper mode of Conduct to be Observed respecting it; every Officer holding a Commission in the Continental Service is instructed in this matter, for if no respect is paid by ourselves to those engagements, it cant be expected that the Enemy will pay any; let me beg that something be immediately done in the matter. I think So. Carolina in some degree convinced; inclosed are some open letters from our Captive friends which may serve to give some Light;

I fancy the flag was sent for Intelligence, particularly as no time but this would do; I find some of the letters dated 21st May, they did not know of our arrival in Florida till 20th, therefore you see it was soon determined on. I wish they had not the present pretext; and I am, Dear Sir, Your Most Obedt. Servt.,

S. ELBERT.

To Colo. Habersham.

Cumberland Island, 31st May, 1777.

Sir:—I am Honored by the receipt of your Letter by Lieut. Skinner of the 16th Regiment and in answer can only say, that I am sorry there should be a necessity for a Second Application respecting the Capitulation of Fort McIntosh, which I think would have been unnecessary had the application by Capt. Brown gone through the Proper Channell; you may rest assured that I will do all in my power to have this matter put on a proper footing Immediately.

That Humanity with which you mention our people taken by you have been Treated, is what Americans can never depart from, but Sir, it hurts me, as I am sure it must you, to be informed that some of the unfortunate men of Colo. Baker's Detachment who fell in your hands, were cruelly Butchered by the Savages, in cool Blood, and in the presence of some of your people; if Savages cant be restrained, why are they Employed?

Lieut. Skinner being detained at a post some miles distant from me I am sorry to have been deprived the pleasure of seeing him, I have the Honor to be,

Sir, Your Most Obedt. Hum. Servt.,

S. ELBERT,

Colo. 2nd Regiment of Continental Troops for the State of Georgia & Commang. Officer of the Troops on the Southern Expedition.

To Major J. M. Provost, or Officer Commanding the British Troops on St. Johns River & posts beyond same.

Sunday, 1st June, 1777, Arrived at the old Town on St. Illa where we were Joined by Colo. Harris with his party; the men begin to be very Clamorous for want of Provisions.

Monday, 2d June, A Capt., two Subalterns, 3 Sergts., and forty-five rank and file with 24 Hours' provisions & 36 rounds of Ammunition pr. man to be ready to march at an Hour before sun Set; the Capt. to wait on the Commanding Officer for Orders, who strictly forbids that any Guns be fired about the Camp, on any account whatever; all the men are to be landed and Encamped on Shoar as soon as possible; a Subaltern with two Sergts. & 30 Rank & file to mount Guard at Sun Set, to be relieved every Evening at that Hour; he is to post such Sentries as will effectually prevent a Surprize & have them frequently visited in the course of the Night; all the Troops to parade at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning; the Commanding Officer Orders that for the Future every Soldier not having his Arms in his Hand shall, while speaking to the Commission Officer, take off his Hatt & if he has his Arms about him he is to speak with them recovered with his Hatt on; any Officer who may be observed speaking to a Soldier without puting this Order in Execution will be Immediately put under an Arrest for disobedience of Orders; a Garrison Court-Martial to Sit to-morrow for the Trial of all Prisoners.

By Major Mark Provost of his Majestys Sixteenth Regemt. Commanding the Troops on St. Johns River & post beyond the same. To Lieut. Skinner of the 16 Regemt. of Foot: You are to Proceed with a Party of a Corporal & Eight Men under your Command, together with a Guide, to the nearest posts of any Consequence to the Enemy when, if stoped, you will require the name of the Commg. Officer & deliver to him the Letter herewith sent, as Humanity is the chief motive of your Errand. You will apply for an answer to My Letter together with the compliance with the Terms of the Capitulation of Fort McIntosh desiring that as many Prisoners as are now in Georgia may be sent Immedy., that the Public may be Convinced, Notwithstanding all the reports to the contrary, that a Capitulation of said Fort is to be observed in every point on the side of the Enemy, as it has been on ours, such Necessarys & other things as may be given to you for the use of the prisoners you will observe to take an Exact Account of, and that they are not Embaziled by any Person under your command. You will be pleased to represent to the Commanding Officer that in future all small parties found in Arms beyond the Limmits of Georgia, Agreeable to an order of His Excellency Sir Wm. Howe, shall be looked upon as Robbers & Murderers; it is indecent that Harmless & Innocent Planters should find themselves the object of these Excursions, & that the Sending of any Parties to take or assassinate any Particular Individuals is never Countenanced & is Contrary to the rules of war, Dictates of Humanity, and when ever they are taken no quarter given to them. Its expected that our Prisoners shall be sent & prisoners found for them at the first post on the Frontiers of this Province; in particular you will apply for Lieut. Beecher, a sergent & some men taken at Saint Johns ferry on the Cowford, all the Creek Indians now Confin'd in Georgia or any other which are detained & can be looked upon as Prisoners of War. You will be pleas'd to Explain that any Complaints of Cruelty and Illtreatment to prisoners cannot with any shadow of right be laid to any of his Majesty's Troops who upon all occasions are distinguishable for their Humanity & Kindness to all of them that fall into their Hands, and that notwithstanding their treatment received by Many of his Majesty's Subjects in the Colony, none are Suffered of that Kind, & if the Indians were suffer'd to fall, on the Colonies Adjacent to this, as they are very desirous of doing, it is obvious what would be the Consequence, & Nothing but Self preservation has Induced the Govournor of this Province to Permit some of them to make War upon them as no parties Amg. the Creeks have made their appearance in Georgia till after this intend'd invasion of this Province by General Lee.

I have further to desire that you will not Suffer Yourself to be detain'd beyond the Necessary time to refresh Yourself and Party without the most Earnest representation to the Contrary.

Savannah, 18th July, 1777.

Dear General: Your very obliging letter of 27th May I recd. on my return to Fort Howe, that of 9th of June on the Road to Savannah & the last a few Days since; did not my Duty require it I should think myself wanting in every particular were I to neglect answering them, nor was it fro want of Inclination that I have been thus late; a continued Interruption, by some means or other, added to the unavoidable Necessity of Examining & Certifying my Officers' Accots. which they were obliged to have ready by the 15th Inst., has been the cause. That You should be Kept in the Dark respecting the Military operations in this State, I am not a little surprised. Those, whose duty it was to give you the Necessary and timely Information are alone Culpable. I always thought I did my Duty by reporting to the Officer Commanding here. After my return to Saint Illa and waiting there a few days without the Supplys I had reason to Expect from the letters I wrote at Saint Marys & Cumberland, which you had copies of, and my men for want of provissions in a State of Mutiny, I found myself reduced to the Necessity of marching over land to Fort Howe with such of them as were able to undergo the fatigue, the Galleys and Transports with the remainder returned to Frederica, from which place they have since come here; the day after my arrival at Fort Howe I Marched to Derrian, where I met Colo. Screven with between two and three Hundred of his Regiment coming to join me. Being left to do as I thought best, I recommended to him to proceed with his detachment as far as Saint Illa and there continue and cover the Cattle drivers, who were Just then preparing to go out; this he did, and I believe nere a Thousand Head Cattle were collected and brought over when he returned to Fort Howe, since which no post has been occapied to the Southward of the Alatomaha by our Troops; after Colo. Scriven crossed that River, I marched my detachment to Savannah where the most of them now are.

On conversing with Colo. Habersham I find that you had every paper necessary to lead you into the particulars of the Southern Expedition, except so far as Explained the Authority I had for taking the Command and proceeding thereon, for which purpose I inclose Copy of General McIntoshes letter to me of the 26th April last which I hope will set that matter in a Clear point of View.

Our new Troops begin already to be Sickly which I am well convinced could be remedied by marching them about 140 miles back, where they could be Kept ready to return on any Emergency, and in that case be of Service; on the other hand, if they remain in the lower Settlements they will become a burthen to the State without the least probability of advantage from them; it is my opinion as the first Battalion are Seasoned men they would be sufficient to remain here during the Sickly months, but the General thinks different with me in this matter. I received the Inclosed letter from Colo. Scriven yesterday. I send you a return of my Regiment. together with an Exact account of their Arms and Accoutrements as could be procured at this time, many of them being on out Commands. Could you by any means furnish me with good Muskets and Bayonetts for my men it would make me Happy, the Sorry trash I have at present being such a medley of Rifles, old muskets & fowling pieces, with a few French Traders, that I have no faith in them, not above fifty of the three Hundred Stand French Arms bought the other day in South Carolina, but what are either Bursted or otherwise totally unfit for Service.

You may rest assured that I shall pay due respect to your Recommendations of Mr. Bradly. I am with much respect, Dear General,

Your most obedt. Servt.,

S. ELBERT.

Savannah, 25th July, 1777.

Capt. William Lane,

Sir: I should have been glad to have seen you in this State at the time your Company arrived here; some matters with respect to the settlement of your account with the Public and making your people easy about their Bounty-money required it, but as your private Concerns put that out of your power the inconvenience must be remedied the best way possible, nor am I sorry it has so happened as there is a necessity of having some Active person in your State, to recruit and send to Head-Quarters here the deficiency of the Regiment, for which purpose I send the Inclosed return of the same, that is, of such men as have come to Head-Quarters, and the Number wanting to Complete, which I request that you will spare no pains to have done without loss of time. I have no doubt but on proper application, the Governor & Council of Virginia will grant, not only permission but their assistance in having the Battalion filled agreeable to the Intention of the Congress, as notwithstanding they were raised for the Immediate defence of Georgia, they would at all times be ready to Bleed in defence of any of the United States, particularly that which gave them Existance; should you not be able to accomplish this matter without, I beg that you will make application to our deligates at Congress and let me know their determination thereon, and at all times favor me with an account of your success which I heartily wish, and am, Sir,

General Standing Orders.

General McIntosh is sorry he is obliged to remind Officers who should make their Duty their Study, so often of it without Strict Military Subordination and obedience to orders all other Rules are artless and Regular Troops no better than Militia. Therefore in future the Genl. Expects that no Commissioned Officer of the Continental Forces on any pretence shall leave Head Quarters, or any Post he is Stationed at without leave first had and obtained of the Commanding Officer, and upon their return or coming to any part of the United States where Troops are stationed they are ordered to wait upon the Officer commanding there for his Command, as also upon their departure. All Officers upon out posts are ordered frequently to write to the Commanding Officer giving acct. of all occurrences and every intelligence he can get on his command, and if extraordinary by express, the same to be observed by officers on the recruiting or any other service. The Genl. also expects hereafter to have regular, fair and exact returns with duplicates of the same at the end of every month of each regiment, and independent companies, in this State signed by their respective commanding officers, who for that purpose are to issue standing orders, to make reports in time of any part of such regiment or companies who may be upon out posts; an Orderly Sergeant is to attend daily upon the General.

occasion for their service, and as sickness and disorders are already grown to an alarming height in the Regiment lately come in, Genl. McIntosh therefore orders both regiments to get ready as soon as they conveniently can, and march to the westward wherever a healthy situation and good water are to be found more agreeable to the soldiers than the seacoast to which they have not been accustomed, the 2nd Regiment, Colonel Elbert, is ordered up Savannah river and send such detachment as may be thought necessary out side the settlements upon the branches of that river. The third Regiment, Colo. Screven's, is ordered up Ogeechee River and send the like detachments as its branch is and posts, leaving only one Captain, three Lts. and detachments to the amount of one company in the town of Sunbury, for its protection. The Chaplains, Adjutants and other staff officers are ordered to attend and do their duty with their respective regiments, and all to be ready to march down again at all times in an hour's warning; to give the regiment of horse an opportunity of being once together as there is no occasion for them at present to the westward; they are all ordered immediately, their head quarters at Fort Howe, upon Alatamaha, until the other troops are called down and they are brought on to better discipline and order than they have been hitherto, and from Fort Howe to send such detachments and parties as hereafter may be ordered or thought necessary for the protection of the State; in so doing is our apotitur. Reports from each station and posts are frequently to be made to the commanding officer at head quarters, and the commanding officer of each regiment are to enquire of the inhabitants and be diligent to find the properest stations for the protection of the State and report them. The Genl. positively orders all the troops in this State, whether stationed or marching, to behave with the greatest regularity and decorum at all times towards the inhabitants thereof and not injure them in the least, either in their persons or property upon any pretence whatsoever, whom we are intended to protect and not insult, and by whom we are supported. The soldiers must not presume to judge even in the case of an unworthy citizen, but always act under and assist the civil authority to which he ought to pay the greatest deference and respect, on every occasion. The Genl. Expects to hear no further complaint with respect to provisions and supplies or pld for any violence on that account as commissaries are appointed for that purpose, and the officers commanding any party or detachment are to bring them to acct for any neglect of duty; a neglect or breach of these orders shall not be passed with impunity in future.

Sir: On receipt of this you are to take a circuit with a sufficient number of your troops of horse to the different forts & stations in the western frontiers & see that all the light horse of Colo. Baker's regiment do immediately march for Savannah; all who refuse or are refractory must be made examples of. If necessary to confine any send them to Major Pannell at Wrightsbourgh who has orders to furnish reliefs where necessary. I am your very humbl. servt.,

Sir: On receipt of this with the enclosed copy of the Governor's letter you are without loss of time to assemble your battalion of minute men & let me know a true state thereof. I am, Sir;

Your very huml. servt.,

S. ELBERT, Colo.

To the officers commanding the first & second minute Battalion.

Gentlemen: The inroads, depredation & murders committed by the perfidious Indians, and the danger our frontier settlers are exposed to by them, I doubt not will rouse the spirit of every one who is a friend and wellwisher to his country; to punish those faithless and cruel savages and to protect our back inhabitants against the excursive and rambling enemy, Colo. Elbert is appointed commander of the Continental Troops stationed or sent to the westward and to take and pursue such measures as occasion may require or as far as his orders, prudence or circumstances will admit of. You will (I am persuaded) find a courageous, active and brave commander in said Colo Elbert. Do therefore hereby strictly charge and command you to be obedient to his orders and to assist him with all the forces under your command, and to inform me of every material occurances in order to enable me to issue and give such further orders as may be necessary on the occasion. I am, Gentlemen,

Your most humbl. servt.

JOHN A. TREUTLEN.

To the officers commanding the troop of horse and minutes Battalions.

Augusta, 27th August, 1777.

Dear Sir: Your letter pr. Lieut. Hancock I received on Monday night and that pr. Sikes yesterday evening. I have no doubt but Capt. Walton has given you the particulars of Capt. Gurard's murder, as far as has been yet discovered; that unlucky affair occasioned me to detain the regiment for some time, by going in search of him and the murderers, and the day after my return I received the enclosed letter from Mr. Galphin which was the means of my marching about 60 miles, twelve of them thro' a swamp four miles wide, with eighty men, when at last the tent proved to be a large white log which like brave fellows we surrounded and came off with no other damage than a few mosquito bites. I shall take care to execute the order of General Howe & send the prisoners down to you; very few of my regiment can be ready to march at a minutes' warning as they are dispersed amongst the Forts, a number sick and not less than twenty deserted since I came up here, nor is it to be wondered at since they run no other risk if taken than to receive one hundred lashes, with a great chance of having that remitted. Pity it is we cant have a court-martial who dare sentence a man to be shot for this crime. As Capt. Porter has been some days gone without our hearing from him, I have no doubt but that the Indian Chiefs have got safe through the settlements. Inclosed is a copy of a talk I gave them. I dont know what to say about the behavior of the Light Horse and lament that the field officers of that regiment had not attended to see their men march as the Capts. and subalterns have no more authority over them than if they had no commissions at all. I am glad to find the affair at Fort Howe is not so bad as was at first apprehended, it seems a little strange that we cant be victorious in one skirmish with the savages. The loss of Ticonderago staggers me, as I suppose it proceeded from either want of men, or bravery; the affair is in some degree counterbalanced by the capture of General Prescott as probably by that means we shall have the worthy General Lee restored. I am, Dr. sir,

Your most obedient servt.,

S. ELBERT.

P. S. I dont think it would be amiss to lay a copy of the talk to the Indians before the Assembly for their perusal.

General McIntosh.

Augusta, 27th August, 1777.

Sir: When I gave you leave of absence from the regiment for ten days or a fortnight to go to Chas Town, little did I think that your presence would be wanting at this day; no less than thirteen men of your company have deserted, which perhaps might have been prevented had one of their officers thought so much of his duty, as to be with them; my duty obliges me to desire that you immediately join the regiment. And am, sir,

Sir: I was unfortunate enough to desire that your company might remain where they were till you were relieved, which I expected would have been before this. I have now to order that you march for Savannah immediately with your whole company on receipt of this, whether you are relieved or not.

Augusta, 9th September, 1777.

Dear Sir: I wrote you pr return Sikes & a few lines by Lieut. Bilbo since which I have not heard from you. I am just returned from visiting the Forts on the western Frontiers but could find no signs of any Indians near them; they are crowded with the inhabitants who have not yet returned to their habitations which they quit at the late alarm when Capt. Dooly and others were killed. Inclosed are some papers respecting Lieut. Cunningham, who I begin to think behaved better in the action than was at first represented; he remains under arrest at Wrightsborough. Captain Dooley & Pannell with Lieut. Booker are now prisoners with me on their parole; you will please, pr. return of the bearer, give me positive orders what to do with them. I am in hopes the matter may be overlooked as the Indians are by this safe in their own Nation & the gentlemen very sensible of their error in what has been done. Poor Dooley had lost a brother; Fannell went as a piece makcr to prevent mischief. Booker & Bilbo, two giddy young men—in fact I think the end answered in putting them under arrest, as it serves to convince them that they are not always to do as they please.

About half of my regiment are now sick in Wrightsborough, the most of them on the recovery, those fit for duty are disposed of as under. Mrs. Elbert being in a situation which requires her being in Savannah the latter end of this month, I hope you will find it convenient to let me return there shortly. I suppose Colo. Stirk waits your orders; I will be obliged to you to let him have them. I wish you happy, & am, dr. General.

Sir: Your letter of the 8th instant covering some resolves of your honorable assembly is just received, and be assured Sir, it gives me pain, that I am obliged to decline accepting the Command they do me the honor to offer, nor can you judge how much I am embarrassed at being under the necessity of differing in opinion with so respectable a body. While General McIntosh contends for the command of the Continental Troops in the State, and I continue to hold my commission, I am bound to obey him, and were I to presume to do otherwise, I should subject myself to be tried by a court-martial.

That love for my Country which prompted me to engage in its service will have equal weights when I find myself a clog to its interests, and least an error in my judgement may operate to its prejudice I am willing to leave an opening for those, who may have a different opinion, by resuming the character of a citizen.

While I continue to command here, it will be my chief study, as I find it my duty, to pursue the plan of defense pointed out by the House, as far is in my power.

I have just returned from a visit to the forts on the Ceded Lands. The inhabitants are at present in peace, but how long the savages will permit them to remain so, I am at a loss to guess.

I am with the greatest respect, sir,

A general court-martial, whereof Colo. Habersham is appointed president, is ordered by General McIntosh to set to-morrow morning 8 o'clock for the trial of the prisoners in the guard house; and all that are able of the second & third regiments now in or about Savannah are ordered to get ready this day and march to-morrow for the southward, part of whom are to relieve a detachment of the first regiment at Darien, who are ordered to head quarters, and the rest stationed and disposed of as Colo. Scriven may think necessary who is to report the number, situation and state of the troops under his commands with their arms, ammunition, horses, &c., frequently. The commanding officers, also, who have not yet made returns of their respective corps the last or preceeding months are once more required to do it immediately, and always hereafter at the end of every month without fail.

Parole-Elbert.

Brigadier Genl. McIntosh having received orders in consequence of the directions of the honl. Continental Congress from General Howe to repair with all possible speed to head quarters at the grand army where his service is thought necessary and a brigade left vacant for him, gives notice to the Continental army in Georgia that as it will be absolutely requisite to devote the little time he will have to stay in this state to the settlement of his private affairs, he by the consent and permission of the commander in chief of the department abstracts himself from all military duty in this state, in consequence of which the command of the Continental army in this state devolves till further orders upon Colo. Elbert, and the army and its dependents are ordered to respect & obey him as their commanding officer.

Savannah, 10th October, 1777.

Dear Sir: General McIntosh has just sent me a letter he received from you informing of the light horse having quit Fort Howe without leave according to their former practice. I desire that you do immediately take the most effectual means to have them secured and sent down for trial, I mean the leaders, & if you can by any means find that a commissioned officer is concerned in the affair or accessory thereto I order that you put him under arrest for trial, as I am determined while I command that duty shall be attended to; if Capt. Stuart & Lieut. Robertson have removed any of their men without authority I order them under arrest for the same. The troops in town are under marching orders for the southward, but when they will be got away I dont know, as some of them are in a state of mutiny for want of pay. I shall however assist you as soon as possible. Such officers of the Light Horse as are in town I will hurry to you & urge to Messrs. Rae & Roberts the necessity of their immediate going. Please let me know as soon as possible a state of the 3d regiment, with any other troops under your command to the southward, the posts that are at present occupied & those you would recommend to be continued or established. I am with esteem, dr. Sir, Colo. Elbert presents his compliments to Genl. Parole-McIntosh.

General McIntosh having given up the command of the Continental Troops, in this State, in consequence of his receiving orders to join the Grand Army, where his services are required, Colonel Elbert, on whom the command devolves, orders that immediate returns be made to him, of the strength, arms, accoutrements & clothing of all the Continental Troops of the State, as also returns of all artillery, ammunition, stores, &c. All officers who are absent from their respective corps (except such as are absolutely on the recruiting service) are ordered to join them without loss of time; any hereafter who presume to quit their stations, without proper leave may expect to be taken notice of. The Honbl. Continental Congress have appointed James Rae, Esq., commissary general of purchases & John Bohan Girardeau, Esq., commissary general of issues for this State; those gentlemen are to be received, respected & obeyed as such; four companies of the second battalion to march immediately to Colo. Scriven's & there receive his orders; Capt. John Habersham of the first regiment is appointed to act as Brigade Major till further orders, & as such he is to be obeyed by the army in the State.

Savannah, 13th October, 1777.

Dear Sir: It astonishes me that you should send to know whether you are to take Dooley or not after my positive orders to do so. If he will not surrender himself do you lay the fort in ashes, and bring him at all events, should you be obliged to collect all the troops to the westward for the purpose, & if that wont do send express to Colo. Thompson by Mr. Hammonds knowledge & he will assist you, & when this business is executed which I beg may be with all expedition I desire that you will order all the Continental troops to the westward to march for this place, say 2d & 3d regiments & Light Horse who are to be relieved by the minute men; an attack is intended against the State from St. Augustine. Dear Sir: From many circumstances it appears that an invasion of the state is intended shortly from St. Augustine. I have with the advice of the council, determined to order all the Continental troops from the westward; it will therefore be necessary in you to send one of your field officers to forward them. Those on duty there are to be relieved by the minute men. I have information of a certain Donald McDonald being in St. Andrews Parish lately returned from Florida, pray have him apprehended & secured. The general court-martial of which Colo. Habersham was president is approved & dissolved; the court having made the most strict inquiry into the conduct of Lieut. Cunningham of the 2d Battalion respecting the charge brought against him of cowardice in a late skirmish with the enemy, and after examining several witnesses on the occasion, report as their opinion "that Lieut. Cunningham acquitted himself in the said engagement with the honor & valor becoming an officer." The commanding officer is happy in agreeing with the above report & orders that Lieut. Cunningham immediately joins his regiment. Andrew Hays, William Asbey and John Asbey of the Light Horse, John Wright of the Artillery & Thomas Hodge of the 2d Battalion are ordered to receive the punishment to which they were severally sentenced by the court, this afternoon on the parade, in the presence of all the Continental Troops in town to be drawn out on the occasion; those who belong to corps having no person present are to be kept in confinement till they can be delivered to the care of their proper officers. Agreeable to the command of General Howe the following orders of His Excellency General Washington are to be published to the army in this State; all concerned are desired to pay due respect thereto and in order that they may be the more public the Brigade Major is ordered to have them printed in the Gazette, viz.

General Orders.

Headquarters, Morristown, 8th May, 1777.

As few vices are attended with more pernicious consequences in civil life, so there are none more fatal in a military one, than that of gaming, which often brings disgrace & ruin upon officers, & injury & punishment upon the soldiery, and reports prevailing, which it is to be feared are too well founded, that this destructive vice has spread its baneful influence in the army, & in a peculiar manner to the prejudice of the recruiting service, Commander in chief, in the most pointed & explicit terms, forbids all officers & soldiers playing at cards, dice, or any games except those of exercise for diversion, it being impossible, if the practice is allowed at all, to discriminate between innocent play for amusement, & criminal gaming for pecuniary & sordid purposes. Officers attentive to their duty, will find abundant employment in training & disciplining their men, providing for them & seeing they appear neat, clean & soldier like, nor will anything redound more to their honor, afford them more solid amusement, or better answer the end of their appointment, than to devote the vacant moments they may have, to the study of military authors. The commanding officer of every corps is strictly enjoined to have this order frequently read & strongly impressed upon the minds of those under his command; any officer or soldier or other person belonging to, or following the army, either in camp, in quarters, on the recruiting service or elsewhere, presuming under any pretence, to disobey this order, shall be tried by general court-martial. The general officers in each division of the army are to pay strictest attention to the due execution thereof.

The Adjutant General is to transmit copies of this order to the different departments of the army, also to cause the same immediately to be published in the Gazettes of each state, for the information of officers dispersed on the recruiting service.

By His Excellency's Command.

MORGAN CONNOR, Adjutant Genl. Pro. Tem.

The main guard to be reinforced to a subaltern, one sergt., a drum and sixteen rank and file, the officer of the guard will get the countersign every evening at retreat beating from the Brigade Major who will receive it from the commanding officer. Major Marbury of the regiment Light Horse is appointed to the command of the said regiment of which all officers, soldiers, &c, are desired to take notice & govern themselves accordingly. Colo. Elbert presents compliments to Genl. McIntosh and will be glad to be informed respecting an application Lieut. Beacher makes for pay as a prisoner of war, from the time of his captivity at the rate of a dollar pr day, whether as commanding officer the Colo. has authority to draw on the treasury for the same or not. Tuesday afternoon.

Savannah, 15th Oct., 1777.

Dear Sir: Your letter of the 16th inst. containing His Excellency General Washington's orders against gaming has been received and attended to. Colo. Habersham, by whom I now write, comes to Charles Town in order to consult with you the most proper steps to be taken to have his regiment recruited, I have no doubt, on your representing the matter to General Washington but he will cause it to be done without loss of time; it is a pity that so genteel a set of officers should be unemployed. Should you find it necessary to advance those officers the sums requisite to enable them to proceed on this service it can be returned, as soon as Colo. White arrives, who has in charge a sum of continental money to be deposited with our paymaster general for the purpose of supporting our army. Since the command has devolved on me, I have been busied in collecting & putting in order our scattered forces, and as soon as I can possibly obtain it, shall send you a return of the brigade.

As we have not one in the State pray if possible furnish us with three or four handy brassfield pieces properly mounted, with the necessary apparatus, adding thereto some round & Cannister shot to fit them; I find on inquiry that we have not a ream of cartridge paper in the State, if of that article any is to be procured please likewise order us some, as I would willingly have a quantity of musket cartridges ready in case of emergency; at present we have none. Applying to you for those articles may be out of the proper line, but I know you will excuse me when I tell you that I am at a loss to find out the proper officer & my anxiety for the safety of the state will not suffer me to delay a moment.

His honor the Governor favored me with the inclosed copy of letters he recd. from the so'ward yesterday, which added to many different reports of the like nature leads me to believe that our southern neighbors intend paying us a visit very soon, I have conversed with Gen. McIntosh, who seems to be much of this opinion. I think it my duty at all times to give you the earliest notice of any intelligence of this kind for your government. Colo. Baker having resigned the command of the Light Horse and that regiment being in the greatest confusion for want of a proper leader and as I know of no person in the State more entitled or better qualified than Major Marbury, formerly of that corps, but superceeded by our legislation without a cause or even a hearing I have judged it for the benefit of the service to appoint that gentleman to the command of the regiment, which I hope will meet your approbation. I am very respectfully, dr. sir,

The main guard to be augmented to twenty rank & file, with intent that every evening at retreat that a corporal & three men be detached to take post at the new barracks where they are to remain till reveille, but when they march back to the main guard patrols are to be sent at least twice a night to reconnoiter the town & hamlets to see that every thing is quiet; should any unlawful assembly be found they are to be dispersed, and if any soldiers are found gaming they are to be immediately conveyed to the guard house. Dear Sir: By virtue of an act passed by our legislature which with some other papers I now enclose, several persons have been ordered to depart the State in forty days. No vessels being in port, bound to sea in that time, they have applied to me for passes inland in open boats. This I think myself not properly authorized to comply with, as it cant be doubted but they intend for St. Augustine. Whether it may be good policy to strengthen the hands of our east Florida neighbors by sending among them a number of men, leaving their families and fortunes behind them, well acquainted with the situation and strength of the state, and at a time when we have every reason to think an invasion from them is intended, I leave you to judge, and beg to have your particular instructions, for the rule of my conduct. Messrs. Mullryne & Tatnall claim a privilege of going where they please as prisoners on their parole, having been exchanged for Messrs. Demere, Roberts & Rice. This matter Colo. Habersham can explain to you. Colo. Scriven with a few continentals and some volunteers from the militia are gone towards Satilla on a scouting party. Since my last, we have no fresh intelligence.

Capt. Doolly, the principal hand concerned in the insult on the Indian Ambassadors, has (after giving me his parole of honor) refused to give himself up. I have ordered the fort, in which he makes a stand, and I suppose that by his company of Light Horse, to be laid in ashes, and him secured, when I shall send the gentleman & his assistants to you. I am very respectfully, dr. sir,

P. S. Give me leave to hint, that I think, if you intend sending a flag of truce to St. Augustine, were it done immediately, not only the advantage of having some of our suffering friends released may be gained by it, but some timely intelligence, with respect to their intentions against us also.

The general court-martial of which Major McIntosh was president is approved & dissolved; John Rice, William Wyatt & James Donaldson of the Light Horse to receive one hundred lashes each on the bare back agreeable to their sentence; David Burel, Benjamin Joyner, Christian Gamillorn and James Barber of the Light Horse are to receive sixty lashes each on the bare back agreeable to their sentence. As those men are punished for that worst, and most unmanly crime a soldier can be guilty of, that of shamefully abandoning a post committed to their charge, the commanding officer strictly commands that the proper officers do see the lashes laid on with uncommon severity, as by articles of war the offence should be punished with death; Sergt. Moore to be discharged, being acquitted by the court; this to be done on the parade this afternoon, for which purpose the troops are to be drawn out, the prisoners to be delivered into the charge of some officer of the Light Horse, after punishment, to be by him marched to join their respective companies.

Sergt. Connell, Sergt. Burns, Capt. Connoly, George Main & David Browney, of the first regiment, & Michael Cane, of the second regiment, to be tried by regimental court-martial, the general court-martial having reported their crimes cognizable by them. Complaint has been made that some officers of the troops in the State make a practice of suttling for their men and charging very advanced prices for many articles they furnish them with by which the people are much dissatisfied & the service injured. This practice being contrary to the articles of war is strictly forbid, and any who may be hereafter detected in the above practice may depend on being brought to trial for disobedience of orders & breach of the articles of war.

Parole-Demere.

A general court-martial to sit to-morrow morning for the trial of all prisoners whose crimes are cognizable by them, Lt. Colo. Harris, president; Mr. John Oates & Mr. Mahony will give evidence against Oates of the 2d regiment & the same officer with Trevor of the Light Horse who gave evidence against the other Horsemen will appear on trial of those now in confinement. A trusty officer with a sergt. command of the first regiment to march to Sunbury and guard to headquarters in order that they may take their trials four deserters belonging to that corps taken up by the galleys in attempting to make their escape to the enemy in St. Augustine; the commanding officer is informed that the officers commanding the main guard, make a practice of taking a bed with them in the guard house and sleeping the night through, he takes this method of informing them that should he at any time, either night or day, visit the guard and find the officer asleep, he will immediately have him relieved & put under arrest to be tried for so unsoldierlike a practice. If an officer is not able to do twenty four hours duty without sleeping he is not qualified to bear a commission & therefore it is recommended to such, if any there be, to make a prudent retreat in time, as it is a determined point with the commanding officer to have strict duty done without relaxation.

Headquarters, Savh., 19th Oct., 1777.

Dear Sir: I send this pr. express inclosing a letter Mr. Sheftall just gave me which will inform you of Mr. Moore, with the Florida

I desire that you take as many men as you can collect together with as much care and speed as possible and proceed up till you strike Coonuchie near where tis possible they may be and if possible try to come up with them. I shall send a party from here of about fifty men to march to-morrow & cross Ogeechie & keep up to where they are supposed to secret themselves. Least our party and you should meet and not know one another, you and them are ordered every man to put a white piece of paper or linen as a cockade in your hats, the parole will be Washington, and the sign and countersign as follows: If your party discover ours, the first who see the other, gives a loud hem, the other, if friends, will answer it with clapping the hands together twice, making two loud claps. If this is carefully done, there will be no risk of our party hurting each other. I wish you success, and am, Dear sir,

Mr. Sheftall: On Thursday me and William Brunson was a hunting at the Partridge Pond, and on our arrival there, we saw a party of men come up, with a gang of half blooded horses. They came up to us, and we found they was the Florida Scout, Sam Moore the Lieut., they insisted us to go with them to Little Ogeechie, and when they got there, they let us go, upon oath, that we would not discover them. On our return home, we met with Esq. Lanier; he made all the haste home for to raise a party of men to go after them. William Brunson set off for Mr. Pearces to try to raise some more, and the Scout took away my saddle, and if it had been mine, they would have given me a cow for it; but as it was Mordecai Sheftall, the chairman's, they were rejoiced at it. They wish it was yourself; no more from me.

The general court-martial ordered to sit to-morrow & the party that was ordered to march to Sunbury are for particular reasons countermanded; all the Continental Troops in town able to do duty are ordered to parade & be ready to march for the southward at four o'clock this afternoon each with sixty rounds ammunition, the men carry no luggage, but their blankets and two or three days' provisions. Colo. Harris who is to take the command is to wait on the commanding officer for orders; the main guard to be relieved by Colo. Martin's Militia.

Head Qrs., Savannah, 19th Oct., 1777.

Dear Sir: I have certain intelligence, which by the enclosed copy of a letter, you will find that Moore with a party of his Florida Scouts is now on or near Ogeechee. I have information that they rendezvous high up Canoochee in a fork up that creek. I desire that you proceed with your party as if you intended to go to the southward; and after it is dark, strike off and make the best of your way over Ogeechee so as to get in the fork, between that and Conoochee, when you are to use every means in your power to intercept and take those villians. March all night, and then secrete yourself in the day, or they will get intelligence. Trust nobody with your intentions; impress everybody you meet and keep them with you; and by that means information cant be given about you; those you detain will act as guides. When you lay by, do it in a secret place; taking care to guard the passes. Let no man fire a gun, on pain of severe punishment. I dont expect that anybody will be able to give me an account of your rout till you return, so careful and secret you must be. I have ordered Colo. Screven with a strong party to go high up Conoochee, cross it and come downwards. You will meet him, and for fear of your mistaking each other, I have given him the following tokens, which you are to follow and observe: Each man to have a white cockade in his hat; the parole Washington; Sign and countersign thus: the first who sees the other gives a loud hem; to be answered by two loud claps of the hand. If on this being thrice repeated, and not being properly answered, depend they are enemies. Be vigilant, and I wish you success.

Parole-Marbury.

All the men belonging to the regt. of Light Horse now to the southward are to be marched to the westward, in order that those whose terms are expired may be paid & discharged; Capt. Dooly's company is to march to headquarters immediately. Capt. Walker with his troop and as many of the third regiment as Colo. Rae thinks necessary are to attend him & Mr. Galphin to the Indian Treaty & to protect and keep from harm the Indian ambassadors now on Ogeechee, after which they are to be marched to headquarters. The order for all the Continental Troops to march from the westward, was not intended to include those who were sick & not fit for duty. Those men of the Light Horse in confinement are ordered to be discharged, being forgiven by the commanding officer in consequence of their having a new commander appointed.

Savannah, 25th Oct., 1777.

Dr. Sir: My letter to you pr. Colo. Habersham respecting the application of the Tories to go to St. Augustine, I should be glad to have an answer to as soon as possible. The bearer of this is Major Pannell of my regt. who is under arrest on account of the affair with the Indian Ambassadors. I have no doubt he will easily convince you of his innocence in that matter. I expect by this that Capt. Dooly is taken; we have no late intelligence from the so'ward, nor any worth relating; the Troops of this State are at present so scattered that I cant obtain accurate returns to send you. A court of enquiry to sit to-morrow to inquire into the conduct of Lieut. Robinson & Lieut. Cannon, both of the Light Horse and under arrest, the first for ordering his men to quit Fort Howe without authority & the latter as being the officer next in command when the party near Fort Howe was defeated, the Brigade Major is to order a proportion of officers from the Light Horse as the articles of war directs, to sit on the above inquiry.

The court of enquiry ordered to sit on Lieuts. Robinson & Cannon report as their opinion that Lieut. Robinson is guilty of what was laid to his charge & that Lieut. Cannon not being commanding officer at the time of the defeat near Fort Howe & of course not answerable for the conduct of Lieut. Anderson who then commanded, & since deceased, report as their opinion that he should be discharged; the commanding officer concurring in the above matter orders Lieut. Cannon be discharged from his arrest & that he do immediately join his regt. but at the same time takes this opportunity of reminding the officers under his command, that he is determined to make examples of any who may be remiss in their duty, particularly that of misbehavior before an enemy. A general court-martial to sit to-morrow for the trial of Lieut. Robinson who are likewise to proceed to the trial of all soldiers now in confinement whose crimes are cognizable by them. Those who have not yet paid a proper attention to the orders of the 13th Oct. are ordered to do so immediately, as a further neglect will be deemed a disobedience of orders and examples made accordingly; exact & accurate muster rolls with every man's name of the troops in the Continental service of this State are ordered to be immediately given to Major Demere, deputy clothier general, in order that he may be enabled to ascertain the exact quantity of clothing necessary to be provided for them as the season is far advanced & the troops in general very bare of clothes; it is to be hoped that supineness which too generally prevails among the officers in this state will be thrown off and that this order will not be treated with the same indifference & neglect as all hitherto offered have been. Lieut Sarceday of the first regiment ordered under arrest by the commanding officer for being absent from his guard having acknowledged his fault & promised better & more strict duty in future, and it having been represented that he is by far more regular & attentive to duty than many other officers in the service, he is ordered to be released from his arrest & to join his regiment; the parties sent to Thunderbolt & Caustons Bluff are to be ordered in directly as the firing heard yesterday was on board a French Snow at Tybee. The general court-martial of which Major Roberts was president is approved & dissolved. Thomas Wainwright, Timothy Duffield & Andrew Watson of the first regiment being under sentence of death for desertion are ordered to be kept in irons & a strict guard over them. Nicholas Williams to be released as it appears he was deceived by Wainwright, the corporal, who told him he was going on duty. Jeramiah McCarty of the third regt. is ordered to receive fifty lashes on the bare back & be drummed out of the service agreeable to his sentence this afternoon on the general

Major Demere, the clothier general, complains that notwithstanding the order of the 3d ulto he is not yet possessed of returns, from some of the corps of the names & time of enlistment of their men, by which means he is much at a loss in procuring & serving out clothing, &c. A want of the common feelings of humanity as well as neglect of duty is what every officer may justly be accused of who are the aggressors, and in case this complaint is renewed, the commanding officer flatters himself that he cant be thought to act with too much rigor if he directs that those officers who pay so little respect to his orders be put under arrest for trial. Peter Taarling, Esq., being appointed by Congress quarter-master general to the army in this state; he is to be respected and obeyed as such; exact & accurate returns of all military stores in the state, as likewise of camp equipage with wagons & teams, to be immediately made to him, in order that he may be able to make up any deficiencies that might be necessary.

Colo. William McIntosh having made complaint that a few days since a party of the troops stationed at Darien crossed to an island on which he has a plantation, and there plundered & brought off with them many articles of his property. the officer commanding to the southward is ordered to make immediate inquiry into this matter and to send to headquarters for trial the perpetrators of an act so disgraceful to the army; nor is this the first cause that gentleman has had for complaint, which he has forbore making in hopes of better treatment. The commanding officer desires it to be made known to the army that the intent of their being supported in this state is to protect & secure the inhabitants in the quiet & peaceable enjoyment of their property, and as his inclination coincides with his duty to act conformable thereto, he is determined to make severe examples of those under his command who are so lost to the feelings of free men as to act otherwise.

Those unhappy men whose conduct has held them up as enemies to the state will be dealt with as the laws direct, by persons appointed by authority of the civil power, and upon aid of the military may be found necessary, on proper application it will be obtained.

The guard to-morrow is to be increased to forty men, who are to be commanded by a captain and two subalterns; Col. Elbert will determine the number of non-commissioned officers requisite to this guard.

At this season, when commonly dissipation and disorder too generally prevail, the General expects the officers, of every degree, will exert themselves to prevent every kind of excess among the soldiers, from which confusion, riot and misbehavior are apt to happen, and which always disgrace an army, when they do. He injoins the soldiers to behave with propriety and decorum, as any misconduct will meet with punishment. Officers of companies are to take care that their men are made acquainted with this order.

John Fauchereaud Grimke, Esq., is Aid de Camp to Major General Howe, with the rank of Major, and is to be respected and obeyed accordingly.

Officers of guard are, upon no pretence whatever, to quit their guards.

The Magazine Guard is to consist of one subaltern officer, one sergeant & 13 rank & file. The Spring Guard of one sergeant & 7 privates These are to be detached from, and dependent upon the Main Guard.

The loose, disorderly manner, in which reliefs of guards march up; the awkwardness of the sentries, in the most common movements of their firelocks; the ignorance of sergeants & corporals in their duty, and the general want of discipline, but too observable in the men, are circumstances of anxiety and surprise to the General. It is painful to him to add, but, however painful, it is time, that he has, as yet, hardly met with one soldier, who has treated him with a proper resp. The relief of guard yesterday was performed in so loose and disorderly a manner as to impress him with inexpressible concern; and what enhanced his mortification was, that he did not observe one officer of the guard exerting himself to correct the mistakes of the men. The motions of the feet, of all others so essential for a soldier to be instructed in, as every thing depends upon proper movements, seem entirely unknown to most of the soldiers he has met with; they walk indeed, but do not march. Not willing to suppose that officers are either ignorant of the mere commonplace duties or negligent in the execution of them, the General will not attempt to inquire to what these dreadful details are owing, but exert himself to correct them. He calls upon officers, of all ranks, to second him in his efforts to effect this important purpose and wishes them to consider, that their own honor, the honor of the army, the safety of their country, and the support of the common cause depend upon it.

Capt. John Habersham is to do the duty of Brigade-Major, until further orders.

The General, desirous that every officer in camp should be acquainted with the orders of this day, requests that Major Habersham will take the trouble of showing them to the officers.

Field officer of the day to-morrow, Major McIntosh.

Officers of companies are punctually to attend roll-call. They are to have the men of their companies frequently taken out and drill'd; not merely to order, but to see, that it is done.

The Sergeants are every day to take out those men, who do not understand the manual exercise, in small squads, and ————them. This is to be carefully and diligently performed.

Majors, Adjutants and all commissioned and non-commissioned officers of companies are to exert themselves to train and discipline the men in exercise and manoeuvres. And as teaching the men to march with propriety is of capital consequence, it ought to claim the particular attention of every officer.

All Sergeants found ignorant of their duty, and not exerting themselves to learn it, will certainly be reduced to the ranks.

It behoves every officer to be careful in making himself acquainted with both daily and standing orders, as ignorance of orders will not at headquarters be received as an excuse for the non-observance of them.

If the men are not punctually made acquainted with all orders relative to them, commissioned and non-commissioned officers of companies will be blamed for it.

Parole-Harris.

For the day to-morrow, Major McIntosh.

Col. Elbert will order, as immediately as possible, an exact return of the military stores in the State of Georgia, to be laid before the General.

The General being informed that, within these few nights, a deserter of the South Carolina Continental Troops has escaped from the Magazine Guard; Col. Elbert is to order a brigade court of inquiry to sit to inquire into the conduct of the officer commanding the guard, when the escape was made; they are also to inquire what soldiers were acting as sentinels when it happened, and report their proceedings to headquarters, that a court-martial may be ordered should it be necessary. A field officer to be president of the court of inquiry.

Brigade Orders.

Savannah, 29th Decemb., 1777.

Exact and accurate returns of all the military stores in the State are to be immediately made to his Excellency, Major General Howe.

A court of inquiry to sit immediately to inquire into the conduct of Ensign Brown who commanded the Magazine Guard when a prisoner belonging to the Continental Troops of So. Carolina made his escape from them, as also what soldiers were doing the duty of sentinels when it happened. They are likewise to inquire into the conduct of Lieut. Morrison, ordered under arrest by the Colo. Commandant for disobedience of orders, and Lt. Booker, arrested by Major Roberts for gaming; they are to report their proceedings to headquarters. Colo. Habersham president of this court.

By order of the Colonel-Commandant,

JOHN HABERSHAM, B. Major.

Savannah, the 29th Decemr., 1777.

Dear Sir: As our military chest is not yet arrived, Gen. Howe furnishes you with a letter of credit on South Carolina for two thousand pounds sterling, and desires that I may put you in mind that you are to purchase no arms but such as are properly proved. Inform Col. White that his regiment is by no means to stop in South Carolina, and that he is positively ordered not to march his men into Charles Town or suffer any of them to enter it. I expect to see you here with all possible dispatch, and am, dr. sir,

Yr. most obedt servt.

(Signed) S. ELBERT.

P. S. The letter of credit is on Mr. Dorsius, Continental Agent. To Lt. Col. Hovenden.

Brigade Orders.

Savannah, 30th Decr., 1777.

The Deputy Muster Master General will attend precisely at three o'clock to-morrow afternoon to muster the first battalion, at which hour they are to be drawn upon Johnson Square for the purpose. Pains must be taken to make the men appear well under arms. At retreat beat a detachment from the third battalion are to relieve all those of the first who are on guard in order that the officers & men may have time to prepare themselves. On Thursday the third battalion are to be mustered in like manner in order to which they are to be relieved by the first battalion as above.

By order of the Col. Commang.,

JOHN HABERSHAM, B. M.

General Orders.

Head qrs., Savannah, the 30th Decemr., 1777.

Parole-Independence.

For the day to-morrow, Major McIntosh.

The Deputy Quarter Master General is, as immediately as possible, to provide barracks for Col. White's Battalion, which is expected in a few days; when they are procured, the chimneys are to be swept and the houses well air'd.

The Deputy Adjutant-General will attend the relief of guard, and establish the proper form requisite to this duty; he is also to appoint some convenient place, at which all commissioned officers of battalions, who are in town, from the rank of captain downward, are to attend to be examined, and if necessary to be instructed in discipline. The General places the greatest reliance upon the exertions of the officers in obtaining that knowledge of their duty upon which the very existence of the army so essentially depends.

Regimental Adjutants are every day to take out the sergeants of their several regiments, and have them regularly drill'd, and to instruct them in every particular of their duty; this is to be continued til further orders. If there are not Adjutants in town to every corps the Adjutants present are to train the sergeants to those corps who are without an Adjutant.

The Deputy Quarter-Master General is to exert himself to remove the just cause of complaint that exists for want of wood, which, in this inclement season, cannot be dispensed with.

General Orders.

Head qrs., Savannah, the 31st Decemr., 1777.

Parole-Houstoun.

For the day to-morrow, Lt. Colo. Rae.

Col. Elbert will report to headquarters what number of new arms have been served out, and in what manner they have been distributed.

The soldiers appearing in the manner they do, with flapp'd hats, in any place (but more especially when on duty) is slovenly and unsoldierly. Hats, however ordinary, may surely be cocked. Do officers of companies take no pride in the appearance of their men, or can they possibly conceive that their credit is not concerned in it? Every want of attention to the men is displeasing to the General. A soldierly appearance in troops renders them respectable to their fellow citizens, and formidable to their enemies. All officers are therefore injoined, but more particularly the officers of companies, to be attentive in endeavoring to make their men appear as decent and soldierlike as possible.

Head qrs., Savannah, the 1st January, 1778.

Parole-Jones.

For the day to-morrow, Major McIntosh.

All guards are to turn out to the Governor of the State, Commander in chief of the army, Brigadiers General, Commandants of Brigade, and Field Officers of the day. The Governor and General, or Commander in chief for the time being, to be received with rested firelocks; Brigadiers General, Commandants of Brigades, and Field Officers of the day with shouldered arms. Sentries are to rest their firelocks to all Field Officers, and to carry their arms to all officers of lower rank.

Col. Elbert will appoint some badge to be worn by the Field Officer of the day, that guards may distinguish him.

The General hopes to see the guards turn out with more alertness than he has yet observed, and all officers of guards are to take notice that a rest from an order is no compliment.

The General has under consideration the report of the court of inquiry.

Officers of guards are enjoined to take particular care that the wood brought for the use of the guards is not wasted or embezzel'd.

Henry Leit, Corporal in the first battn. confined for the loose, disorderly manner in which he relieved the sentries, is, at the intercession of Major Habersham, released from confinement. No future negligence of this sort, either in him or others, will be excused.

Brigade Orders.

Head qrs., 1st January, 1778.

Capt. Young's company of artillery will be mustered to-morrow at Tybee by Lt. Colo. Massey, Deputy Muster-Master General.

Agreeable to general orders to-day the Colonel-Commandant fixes a mark of distinction to the Field Officer of the day, the wearing his sash over the left shoulder; all other officers on duty to wear their sashes as ordered the 5th November last.

Headquarters, Savannah, the 2nd Jany., 1778.

Parole-Martin.

For the day to-morrow, Colonel Screven.

Officers absenting themselves from town, without leave, will in future, be made the subject of court-martial.

It has already been said that ignorance of orders will not, at headquarters, be received as an excuse for the non-observance of them. There are standing orders that have not been complied with. It behooves officers to make themselves acquainted with them, and to obey them. A punctual observance of orders is expected, and will most certainly be exacted.

The General intends very shortly to form the commissioned officers of companies into squads, and to review them. This he intends to do at every post he visits. It is therefore necessary that the Commandant of the Brigade transmit a copy of this order to the different divisions of his Brigade by the first opportunity, that the officers may be apprised of it. The General flatters himself that those officers who have not yet made themselves perfectly acquainted with their duty will exert themselves to effect it as soon as possible. Sergeants and Corporals will also be received and examined; those found ignorant of their duty will certainly be reduced.

Headquarters, Savannah, the 3d Jany., 1778.

Parole-Stirk.

For the day to-morrow, Colonel Habersham.

William Mathews, Esq., is appointed assistant Muster-Master General for the State of Georgia, with the rank of Captain: he is therefore to be respected & obeyed as such.

Headquarters, Savannah, the 4th Jany., 1778.

Parole-Screven.

For the day to-morrow, Lieut. Col. Rae.

The first Continental Battalion in this State will, in a few days, be ordered to march to Ebenezer, where they will for some time be posted, they are therefore to prepare accordingly.

Officers of companies are frequently to visit the houses where their men are quartered; they are to be careful that the soldiers do no damage to the buildings, and the men are forbid, under pain of severe punishment, doing any injury to the buildings, or other property of the inhabitants, where they may be quartered.

Surgeons of regiments are to report once a week, to headquarters, the number of sick they have in charge, the nature of the disorders with which they are afflicted and the time of their confinement; and when they are fit to return to their duty, they are immediately to notify it to the Commandant of the Brigade.

For the day to-morrow, Major Roberts.

The Deputy Quarter-Master General will provide horses and furniture sufficient to mount a detachment of ten men; the horses are to be ready by to-morrow evening. The chimneys at the General's quarters are to be swept to-day; the Deputy Quarter-Master General is to order it to be done.

Brigade Orders.

Headquarters, Savannah, the 5th Jany., 1778.

A Brigade court of inquiry to sit immediately, to inquire into the conduct of Ensign Walton of the 3d Battalion, who commanded the Magazine Guard on the night of the 3d instant, when two prisoners made their escape therefrom; Lt. Col. Marbury, president, with four commissd. officers, are to compose this court; they are to report their proceedings to headquarters.

Parole-Telfair.

For the day to-morrow, Major McIntosh.

The detachment of ten men, mentioned in the order yesterday, it to be commanded by a commissioned officer. The men are to be furnished 18 rounds, and will march early on Thursday morning.

The Deputy Quarter-Master General is to procure, as soon as possible, 500 reams of cartridge paper—the paper used for sheathing vessels will answer, if no proper cartridge paper is to be had; also to purchase immediately, or have made, twenty pair of hand-cuffs.

(HERE ONE SHEET OF MANUSCRIPT IS TORN OUT.)

Headquarters, Savannah, the 7th Jany., 1778.

Parole-Houstoun.

For the day to-morrow, Capt. Smith.

The frequent escape of prisoners from the guards is a circumstance of surprise, anxiety, and displeasure to the General. Do officers ever quit their guards, or do they suffer themselves to sleep upon them? Do they consider the dignity and importance of their office while on guard; that every officer and soldier of the army, relying upon their firmness and vigilance, rest in security, absolutely depending upon them, as the guardians of their safety and honor? Do they consider that the least inattention to duty, or deviation from it, is a great abuse of this generous confidence; that a guard should be a sacred depository where every thing that is committed to its charge should be found when call'd for; and that as it is hardly possible for prisoners to escape without negligence or design in some part of the guard, an officer's reputation can hardly escape a wound, when ever it happens; that therefore it is absolutely incumbent upon officers not only to exert themselves to the utmost to prevent such disgraceful accidents for the future, but to impress upon the men of their guard such a sense of duty and discipline as will induce them to be vigilant and alert, upon which the good of the service essentially depends?

As cleanliness is essential to the health of an army, officers of companies are to be careful that the men of their companies keep their barracks clean; and as accidents from fire are, of all others, the most dreadful; and as they too frequently happen from foul chimneys, they are, without fail, to make the men sweep the chimneys of their barracks at least once a fortnight.

The guards, to-morrow, are to be arranged in the following manner. Both the Main & Magazine Guard to be commanded by a subaltern officer. The Magazine Guard to consist of the same number as at present, but to be independent of the Main Guard, and therefore to report separately. The Spring Guard is to continue dependent upon the Main Guard, and a captain is to act as officer of the day.

Lieut. Morrison, of the first battn., is released from his arrest, the court having reported in his favor.

All the officers in town, except those of the Guards, are desired to meet the General, at headquarters, at half past one o'clock; it is expected they will punctually attend.

General Orders.

Headquarters, Savannah, the 8th Jany., 1778.

Parole-Taarling.

For the day to-morrow, Capt. Scott.

The sentries are to be continued at headquarters as usual.

Officers of guards will take care to give them, every day, strict orders to be attentive and alert.

The General observes, with pleasure, that the men begin to improve in discipline. He leaves the camp to-day, and hopes, at his return, to find them still more advanced. He expects of the officers the strictest attention to duty, and that they will, by every effort in their power, endeavor to improve both the soldiers & themselves in that discipline, upon which so much depends.

The command devolves upon Colonel Habersham, until the return of the General, or some officer superior in rank to the Colonel.

Orders by Col. Habersham, Comandg. Officer in Savannah.

Savannah, the 10th January, 1778.

Parole-Glen.

For the day to-morrow, Capt. Smith.

Colonel Habersham was much surprised to observe that none of the troops were under arms the night the alarm was given. Officers, instead of running to the fire, should have immediately repaired to their respective alarm posts and got their men under arms ready either to have opposed the enemy, or to have given the inhabitants every assistance as they could not tell, when they were first call'd out, for what occasion it was. Such remissness of duty reflects highly on the army; and every officer, for his own credit, should endeavor to avoid it in future.

The Colonel was informed that the officers of the Main Guard, on the night the fire happened, permitted some other officers to commit the greatest irregularities in the guard house. He will make further inquiry into it, and, if he finds his information true, is determined to make an example of the officer who commanded the guard.

General Orders.

Headquarters, Sunbury, the 13th Jany., 1778.

Parole-Stirk.

All officers, at this post, are to deliver their Orderly books to Brigade Major Habersham, at five o'clock this afternoon, for the General's inspection.

The Deputy Commissary of Purchases is to report to the General to-morrow morning the provisions he has now on hand, the places at which it is stored, also the quantity he has contracted for, particularizing each sort, the persons with whom he has contracted, the price he is to give, and at what time and in what manner the provision is to be delivered.

The health of the soldiery is of the highest consideration to the General and should ever claim his particular attention. And as it essentially depends upon the provisions they are supplied with, their method of dressing it; also upon their keeping their barracks clean and comfortable, and indeed upon cleanliness in general, officers, of ever degree (but more especially officers of companies) are, by constant care and frequent inspection, to prevent or correct any errors in these particulars; And it is expected that no officer, however high in rank, will think himself exempt from a duty which humanity and the good of the common cause make incumbent upon all.

The Adjutant will take care that every officer in camp sees this order immediately.

Savannah, the 13th January, 1778.

Sir: James Rae, Esq., Commissary General, represents to me that the difficulty he labors under in procuring money from the treasury is such as will put it out of his power any longer to furnish the troops with provisions, unless speedily remedied. Give me leave to request that you will immediately take such steps as appear necessary in this matter. I have the honor to be with much respect, sir,

Yr. most obedient servant.

General Orders.

Headquarters, Sunbury, the 16th Jany., 1778.

Parole-Virginia.

Doctor Alexander Harvey is, till further orders, to act as surgeon to the detachments which are or may be stationed in Sunbury; and also to those troops occupying the outposts to the southward.

The General leaves Sunbury to-day. The command, until the arrival of some superior officer, devolves upon Captain Morris.

Complaints have been made to the General that some of the soldiers have injured the buildings in town; and his own observation convinces him that these complaints are but too well founded. Actions like these disgrace an army, and render it hateful. Any soldier who either offers insult or does injury to the persons or property of the inhabitants, will be punished in the severest manner. And officers of every degree are enjoined to exert themselves to prevent such enormities for the future, if possible, or to detect those who may commit them, that they may receive that punishment which such actions so richly deserve. Officers of companies are to take particular care that their men are made acquainted with this order.

Officers of companies will be attentive to carry this order into execution, whenever necessary, or they may depend on being themselves made answerable for the loss or repair of arms or accoutrements.

When commanding officers of companies are, by permission or otherwise, removed from their companies, they are immediately to report to the commanding officer of the regiment, for the time being, the exact state of the arms when they were appointed to, and when they left the company, or the officer succeeding to it may be made answerable, should occasion require it.

A neglect of orders still prevails in camp to the great dissatisfaction of the General; should it continue those guilty of it may ex-

Gentler admonitions having failed to produce the wished for effect to prevent a circumstance so extremely disagreeable to the General he enjoins officers of every degree to have a retrospect to past orders and to comply with them, and by greater attention to those issued in future to give no cause for similar reprehensions.

Regemt. Adjutants are to be particularly careful that all orders are made known to all officers and other persons in their corps to whom they relate, and commanding officers of battalions and corps are to take care that they execute this order. The reports from the field officers of the day and non-compliance with some orders relative to surgeons of battalions gives the General reason to suppose that the orders have not been made known to them, as he is unwilling to think they would otherwise have been neglected. Adjutants are, therefore, to report to the commandant of the brigade whether all orders respecting surgeons have been showed them, particularly that orders where they were directed to make out a report of the provisions proper for the sick.

The Brigade Major will give Lieut. Bilbo notice to prepare for his trial immediately. The Assistant Deputy Muster Master General is immediately to make returns of the regiments he has mustered; the utmost exactness is expected in these returns.

The Deputy Clothier General is to take particular and distinct certificates for the clothing delivered out to the different battalions, signed by the commanding officers thereof; and commanding officers of regiments are to report to the commander in chief, or, in his absence, to the commandant of the brigade the names of the men to whom clothing has been served, and produce the men's receipts for the same, which receipts are to be taken in a book.

Regimental Pay-masters are to advert to an order, some time since issued, respecting the manner in which they are to pay the men, which they are punctually to observe, under pain of court-martial.

The General repeats to commanding officers of regiments the necessity of putting their battalions into immediate order either for attack or defence, and into readiness for marching at a moment's warning.

Surgeons of battalions are to attend at headquarters to-morrow morning at nine o'clock.

Staff officers having plead in excuse for the non-observance of orders their ignorance of them, they are therefore directed to keep regular orderly books, as well principals as deputies.

After General Orders.

The general court-martial ordered to try Lieut. McKenny of Col. Screven's Battalion, for unprovoked and scandalous abuse of a lady of distinction, and for other indecent behavior, unworthy of an officer and a gentleman, have reported as follows: "That it is the unanimous opinion of the court that Lieut. McKenny is guilty of the charge laid against him, and that he falls under the first Article of the tenth Section, and the twenty first Article of the fourteenth Section of the Rules and Articles of War, and have therefore sentenced him to be discharged the service;" which the General approves of and ratifies. Lieut. McKenny is therefore discharged from the service, and is no longer to be obeyed as a Continental Officer.

The same court having, by a subsequent order, been directed to try Lieut. Bilbo of Colonel Marbury's regiment of Light Dragoons, for quitting his post without orders have also reported: "It is the opinion of the court that Lieut. Bilbo is guilty of the charge laid against him, and that he falls under the thirteenth Article of the thirteenth Section of the Rules and Articles of War, and do sentence him to be discharged the service, but recommend him to the mercy of the General." The General feels concerned that the resolution he has fixed, of establishing the strictest discipline in the army under his command, renders it impossible for him to pay that attention to the recommendation of the court which he should otherwise be glad to do; but as the present situation of the army requires that the strictest execution of justice should be attended to, rather than the dictates of mercy, and in this particular case more especially, as Lieut. Bilbo has been lately guilty of a similar offence, which was generously overlooked, the General is compelled to ratify the sentence, discharges him the service, and he is therefore no longer to be respected & obeyed as a Continental Officer. The court-martial is dissolved.

The Dep. Quarter Master General having been directed to form some contracts respecting the public hides; those commissaries who have hides on hand are therefore to deliver them to his order.

The filth round the barracks not only contributes to increase the illness of the men, but is become a capital nuisance to the town. Commanding officers of battalions are therefore to order proper detachments from their corps, under the command of their quarter master, to rake up, burn, bury or destroy all the filth in the neighborhood of the barracks of the several regiments. This duty is to be performed to-morrow, and in a careful manner, and is to be done in future regularly twice a week.

As the sick in the hospitals will in future be under other regulations than have hitherto subsisted, they are hereafter to be governed by the following rules: When they are sent to the hospital, they are no longer to be continued upon the Regimental provision list, but are to be furnished by the Commissary of Hospitals. Surgeon, to whose regiment the sick men belong, is to report to the Commissary of Hospitals such men as from whom meat should be entirely withheld, and the proportions in which it may be allowed to others; the quantity admitted is to be drawn for by the Commissary of Hospitals upon the Commissary of Issue, inserting the names for the person drawn for, and the proportion of meat allotted to each. In the absence of the Commissary of Hospitals, the surgeons of regiments will sign these reports, copies of which they are however immediately to give to the Commissary of Hospitals upon his return.

Surgeons of regiments are to report to headquarters to-morrow morning, at ten o'clock, whether they are supplied with a sufficient number of nurses for the sick, a list of whose names they are to give in, and where they are not supplied with a sufficient number they are to endeavor to procure careful persons, proper for this purpose.

The sick in the hospitals are by no means to be suffered to be rambling about the town, at improper times; nor indeed to be absent from their hospitals upon any other occasion, and such as are requisite to give them necessary airing. The orderlies will be responsible if any men are absent from their hospitals without leave obtained of the surgeon.

The General takes the earliest opportunity of expressing in orders, how much he approves the conduct of the Continental Officers and soldiers upon the melancholy accident of fire last night. The zeal, activity, and address they displayed, in checking the progress of a calamity so dreadful, are circumstances he reflects on with pleasure, and are such as must do them the highest honor in the opinion of their fellow citizens. The assiduity the men exerted, in saving the effects of the unfortunate sufferers, and the care they so faithfully took to preserve the goods from injury and embezzlement afterwards, was truly acting up to the character of soldiers in the service of the free, United, & Independent States of America.

His Excellency, the Governor, thinks proper to order a proportion of liquor to be served out to the men to-day and to-morrow, under the direction of proper officers, and the General hopes that the soldiers, by a cheerful yet prudent use of this donation, may give him occasion for further approbation; Officers of the line will be attentive to the men, during the continuance of this little jubilee.

The horns of bullocks, killed for the use of the army, are to be delivered to the Deputy Quarter Master General, who is to have them made into proper powder-horns immediately, but not to serve them out until further orders.

They are to consider it as their indispensable duty to exert themselves to the utmost, to stop the progress of so dreadful a calamity; to aid and assist the inhabitants in saving their effects; to take those effects, if required, under their immediate protection; to guard them securely from being embezzled, and to return them uninjured, when ordered to do so.

Dear Sir: Yesterday one Stafford & this minute one Inman came to this place, having made their escapes from the insurgents, both taken on Ogeechee. The first left them on the south side of this river, and the other on Sattilla. From what I can gather by their different accounts the number of those who marched through the country are nearest to 400, under command of Colo. Murphey, as he is stilled,* they are much at a loss for provisions. The acct. of their carrying a number of cattle with them is groundless. All except 40 are on horse back, and the whole very well armed. The unfortunate heavy rains obliged me to halt for two days, or I would have been at Satilla before them. As soon as I found they had passed, I did not hurry but judged it most prudent to march the men leisurely. We arrived here this forenoon with several men taken sick on the road. As soon as we are refreshed and a convoy of provisions arrives, which I sent round with boats and a flat, I shall try a partisan party or two, and perhaps when they little expect it give them a brush at St. Marys. I shall write you again in a day or two.

I hope you are so much recovered, as to be able to direct matters again, and must beg to put you in mind that I think our friends in So. Officer for the day to-morrow, Major Roberts.

The troops of the 1st, 3rd & 6th Continental Battalions, from So. Carolina, are to be formed into a brigade, of which, Colo. Chas. Cotesworth Pinkney is to be Colo. Commandant; The detachment of Artillery from that State is to join the Artillery of this, and to be under the command of Major Roman.

Commanding officers of brigades will order a sufficient number of fatigue men, who under the directions of the regimental quarter masters are to gather up the garbage and filth in and about the camp, and burn it, and as cleanliness is so very essential to the health of the men, officers of companies are to be attentive that the soldiers are as cleanly as possible and particularly that all the offals of their meat are carried out of camp. The Deputy Quarter Master Genl. are to have well covered arbors built for the sentinels for the brigade to which they belong. This order only relates to the sentinels of this camp. They are also to fix upon proper places for necessaries, both for officers & men, and order them to be built. The Genl. disapproves of the manner in which many of the men, pitch their tents, the heads of the poles are so sharp that they will soon force their way thro. the roofs. That this circumstance should escape the observation and correction of officers of companies and quarter masters of regiments, is matter of surprise to the General. Colo. Elbert will report to the Genl. to-morrow morning, an exact detail both of the guards established in camp and those that are detached. John Jones, Esquire, is appointed a supernumerary aid de Camp to the Genl. with the rank of major; he is, therefore, to be obeyed and respected as such.

Adjutant John Hamilton is appointed to do the duty of Brigade Major to Colo. Pickney, until further orders.

A general court-martial is to sit to-morrow morning, at some convenient place, for the trial of Michl. Newgan, John Brown, Reuban Wandrum, John Baptist Curchon, and Peter Jeute, this court to consist of a field officer as president, and twelve other members to be taken according to detail. The evidences against the prisoners are to be produced by those who can find them and the detail of their crimes is to be furnished by the Judge Advocate.

The pinning down the borders of tents with bayonets seems to be too prevalent in camp, and to the utter astonishment of the Genl. he saw it yesterday at a tent which by the label, appeared to belong to an officer.

The practice is absolutely forbid under pain of punishment. Orderly hour twelve o'clock, at which time the Deputy Quarter Master Genl. and Brigade Majors will attend. A sergt. from each brigade to attend as orderly upon the General.

Brigade Orders.

The quarter masters of regiments are immediately to collect the camp color men, and have the filth in the neighborhood of their different encampments gathered up and either burned or buried. If officers any longer neglect paying a proper attention to their men and seeing that they are clean in their persons and encampments they may expect to meet the censure they deserve. The brigade to parade precisely at 4 o'clock every afternoon for exercise, and as it is possible they will soon be brought to action no men able to bear arms are to be excused.

All tools for fatigue are to be served out from the part of Artillery, and to be returned there again when the fatigue is over; should any be lost or injured by the men, otherwise than by inevitable accident in actual service, the price of such tools will be stopped out of their pay. Officers commanding fatigue parties are therefore to be careful to prevent the loss or injury of tools, as much as possible, and to report the soldiers by whom they are lost or injured; negligence in this particular will be deemed and treated as a breach of duty. The General upon questioning many soldiers yesterday, found them entirely ignorant even of the orders issued relative to them. It behooves all officers in future, either commissioned or non-commissioned, whose duty it is to communicate orders to make the men immediately acquainted with those which relate to them, a strict compliance with this order is expected and will be exacted.

The prisoners in the Main Guard who were yesterday reported to the Genl. and whose crimes are cognizable before regimental court-martials, are by their several corps; prisoners of this sort are to be for the future confined, in quarter guards. Commanders of Brigades and of Artillery are to make a return of the strength of their respective commands this evening to the General.

A detachment consisting of 27 men are to be ready for immediate duty, to be furnished with three days' provisions, according to the following detail, viz: 1st So. C. Regiment; 8-3d-4-6-4 from the 2nd Georgia Regiment, 6-3d-3d- & the corps of Artillery-2. The Major of Brigade will order those of their respective brigades, Major Roman those of the Artillery.

The Genl. court-martial now sitting are to try the following prisoners, viz: Jas. Johnson and Thos. Campbell for desertion, Jno. Sullivan, Jno. Woodcock & Jno. Mason for mutiny. The persons confining them to furnish the evidences.

Colo. Taarling and Colo. Huger, are each to furnish three wagons, proper to be made into ammunition wagons, which Major Roman is, as immediately as possible, to get in order. A sergt. and 10 men from each brigade are daily to attend the Dy. Quarter Master Genl. as fatigue men.

Officers, whose duty it may be to make out returns of the strength of regiments corps, detachments, or guards, or reports of arms, ammunition or other stores, and all commissaries who receive provision returns, are enjoined to be exceedingly careful that no copies of such returns are lost, and cautiously to avoid showing or speaking of them to any but those who have an official right to be informed of or inspect them. The form used by regiments in their provision returns are to be laid before the Genl, by the respective quarter masters. The Genl. thinks proper to express in public orders how highly he approves the conduct of Colo. Elbert in the late expedition against the enemy at Frederica, and with equal pleasure applauds the spirited behavior of the officers and men, both of the galleys and of the army who were upon that command.

This he would certainly have done earlier, but his absence from the army, and the hurry he has been in since his arrival, deprived him until now of that satisfaction. Orderly hour for the future will be at 11 o'clock.

After Orders.

Captain Hyrne of Colo. Pinkneys Regiment is appointed to act as assistant Dy. Adjutant Genl. to the army upon the southern expedition until further orders. All persons, confining prisoners in the Main Guard shall give in writing a detail of the crimes for which they are confined and the evidences to prove them. Field officer for the day to-morrow, Lt. Colo. Henderson.

The Dy. Quarter Master Genl. to report immediately the number of wagons with their respective brigades. The Genl. with concern and displeasure observes, that many of those ordered for relief of guards, neglect to attend parade at the time appo^{td}., and what enhances his anxiety upon this occasion is that even officers are guilty of this want of attention to duty. This error is injurious to service, unjust to the guard to be relieved, and to those of the new guard who punctually attend, it must and shall be corrected. All soldiers therefore, who are not upon parade before the troop has done beating, will certainly be punished, and all officers who are not in their places may expect to have their neglect of duty made the subject of a court-martial. Guards, for the future to be relieved at seven o'clock in the morn^g.

The Genl. with pleasure observed the readiness with which the officers and men of some regiments turned out upon the alarm of last night, nor did those regiments that were less alert escape his observation. He doubts not the continuance of such soldierly conduct in the first mentioned and hopes that readiness equal to theirs may be shown by the latter upon future occasions.

The Commissaries of Issues are to have the stores of the cattle already killed collected, and to be careful of those which may be killed hereafter.

Commanding officers of battalions are to have powder horns made for such men as are not furnished with them.

The Dy. Quarter Master General will have the public wagons put in order for service without delay.

Major Roman will have the Artillery, Cohorns, shells, and hand grenades put in proper order for field service, with the utmost expedition.

The Genl. was pleased in observing the readiness with which the army turned out the last evening, upon the alarm; such conduct is consistant with the character of a soldier, and will always meet his applause.

The vigilance of sentries is the highest importance to the safety and honor of the army. A neglect of this duty in a soldier would be punished with death, and would most certainly deserve it; he should, however, be careful not to fatigue the army, by false alarms, and therefore never fire his piece without he has good reason to believe that there is real occasion for it.

The Genl. most earnestly wishes that the melancholy event of this day may have a proper effect upon the minds of the soldiers; that they would forever remember and observe the injunctions of their comrade and brother soldier who, with his dying breath, and in the solemn manner, warned them against mutiny and desertion, and also against any other crime which might bring them to the dreadful situation to which he was reduced. Desertion is of all other crimes the greatest a soldier can be guilty of. In committing it every moral sanction is violated, the cause of freedom, the darling rights and privileges, both of the present and succeeding generations, which soldiers were ordained particular to secure and protect, are relinquished and betrayed. No sense, therefore, of public or private virtue, no sentiments of honor or religion, can possibly actuate the bosom of that wretch who can have enough to perpetrate a crime in which felony, perjury and treason, to the United States of America, are complicated. But if these considerations, forcible as they are, should not be sufficient to prevent the heinous crime of desertion, let a soldier reflect for a moment on the life a deserter must lead, and he would not devote himself to a situation so miserable. Suspicious of his very friends, if a deserter can have a friend, afraid of and with a meanness a man of spirit must disdain, from the gaze of every eye he meets, deprived of the heartfelt pleasure of social converse, and dreading the noise occasioned by the very air he breathes, he lives continually in apprehension and terror until overtaken by offended justice, under all the horrors of a wounded conscience, he suffers that shameful death, he so The Genl. considering himself as the guardian of the army he has the honor to command calls upon the soldiers, in the most manner to avoid deserving so dreadful a fate, which, as he is resolved never to pardon any future desertions, must inevitably attend all those who may be convicted of it. This order is to be read to the army, company by company.

All hunting and fishing parties are absolutely forbid, without leave from the Commander in chief.

No soldier is to absent himself from camp without permission from, and a written pass signed by, the Genl. Commandants of Brigades, of the Offr. of the Day; the substance of this order is contained in a standing order issued the 20 inst., which having been so little observed, officers of companies are directed to refer to it and to take particular care that this is read to their companies this evening and to-morrow morning, and all commissioned and non-commissioned officers are desired to send any soldiers they find transgressing these orders to the Main Guard that they may be punished. The Genl. thinks proper to repeat the substance of another standing order, that ignorance of orders in officers is by no means to be considered as an excuse for the neglect or breach of them. Moses Allan, Esqr., is appointed to act as A. D. A. G. till further orders.

Officers of companies are to send out men to provide this kind of wadding and to see that what is collected is dry, and that it is kept so. The guards for relief are to charge their pieces, before they march from the genl. parade, to which place old guards are to be marched, when they are to draw their pieces, return their powder into their horns and secure their ball before they are discharged. The shameful waste of powder by firing of guns in and about the camp, absolutely forbid in genl. orders, is highly displeasing to the Genl., it is sporting with the property of Congress, and depriving the army of the means of obtaining honor, defending themselves or supporting the common cause. Have not all officers been directed to exert themselves to the utmost in order to prevent this evil, or detect the perpetuity of it, would not this have been their duty, had such an order never been issued, and have they, the Genl asks, fulfilled it?—if they have, their efforts have been indeed unaccountable unlucky that, notwithstanding the frequency of the crime, no criminal has been detected. He recommends however to the officers in genl., and particularly to the officer of the day not to be disheartened by past ill success, but by redoubted efforts to suppress so unsoldierlike a practise, which may be dangerous and is not certainly disgraceful to the army.

Major Lane would have acted more becoming his character by coolly and impartially inquiring into the matter in dispute, between the Adjutant and Sergt., before proceeding so hastily to an arrest. A genl. court-martial is to sit immediately for the trial of Lieut. Devaliell, arrested by Cap. McIntosh, for quitting his post without leave of this court; a field offr. is to be president & 12 inferior offr. members, to be taken according to detail. Cap. McIntosh is to furnish the evidence. It was not the intention of the orders of yesterday that the field offr. and cap. of the day should go the rounds together; the present situation of affairs requires the utmost vigilance and therefore a cap. of the day was appointed; the rounds they were to go were distinct in their nature and could by no means be performed together. Three grand rounds were required of the one & three visiting rounds of the other, which if performed would effectually have prevented any want of alertness in either guards or sentinels, & consequently contribute to the security of the camp. The most exact compliance is therefore expected. No sentry is to suffer any person whatever to come into the camp, or pass him by night, tho he may happen to give him the countersign, but is to call the sergeant of the guard who will take him to the officer of the guard, and if the man is found to belong to the army, the officer may pass him, but if a stranger he is to be sent to the field officer of the day. All officers of guards are to take particular care that the men of their guards be made particularly acquainted with this order. No party of men at any time under any pretence whatever are to be suffered to come into camp, but are to be detained till the field offir. of the day be acquainted with their arrival, who is immediately to examine them and, if it is proper, pass them. All guards at the approach of any party are immediately to parade and remain under arms until the officer of the day passes the party and orders the guard to be returned. The genl. court-martial of which Major Roberts is president is to also try Lieut. Jno. Mitchell, put under an arrest by Colo. Stirk for refusing to do his duty under pretence of sickness.

Colo. Stirk, Colo. isfactory to those officers, who felt themselves neglected, and induce them to do him justice, in believing that he never meant or intended to treat them with a disrespect they have never deserved at his hands, which, therefore, he would be highly blamable in showing them, and which he is concerned there should have been any appearance of.

This day, memorable for America Independence, ought to be held sacred by all whose object is freedom and to whom rights and privileges are of any importance. The enemy perhaps is mistaking this day for a day of dissipation among us, may endeavor to avail themselves of it by attempting to surprise us; redoubled attention and vigilance is therefore requisite, which the honor and safety of the army & good of the common cause expect and which the General enjoins and requires of the whole army.

The genl. court-martial of which Lt. Colo. Harris, and in his absence Lt. Colo. Roberts, was presidt. is dissolved. The court having reported as follows: That Capt. Scott & Fawlkes & Lieuts. Bryson & Gilmore of the Light Dragoons are severally not guilty of the charges exhibited against them, and on account of no evidences appearing against Capt. Wall of the 3rd Battalion, the court are of opinion he be discharged from his arrest, which being approved the gentlemen are released from their arrests, and are ordered to join their respective corps; William Hooton, tried for desertion, having several circumstances in his favor is acquitted, and ordered to be released and to join his regiment; William Wood, convicted of deserting to the enemy and taking arms against the State, is sentenced to receive four hundred lashes on his bare back; and James Burns, for desertion, is also sentenced to receive fifty lashes on his bare back. These two sentences being approved are ordered to be inflicted as soon as possible, and, as Wood and Burns are two notorious offenders, it is hoped their punishments will be given with more than usual severity.

for having the remainder who are to the southward marched after them. Agreeable to a notification from the Honble Council that the new barracks were in a sufficient state to receive the troops in town, it is ordered that they be immediately removed there; officers of corps are to apply to the Barrack Master, who will proportion the rooms agreeable to their strength. No sick are to be kept there, but always sent to the hospitals taken for the purpose by the surgeons. Capt. Moore with the Light Infantry of the 2nd Battalion is ordered to march immediately to Ebenezer and relieve the Light Dragoons stationed there, who are ordered to march without loss of time to Augusta. Capt. Moore will take care to have strict duty done in guarding the Magazine and other military stores deposited there and to counteract any steps of the enemy which require it, in the neighborhood of his post. The genl. court-martial of which Major Porter was president is approved & dissolved. Sergt. Mason of the Artillery, and Stephen Custis of the first Battn., are to be released from their confinement & to join their corps, being acquitted by the court. The commanding officer is sorry to dissent from the opinion of the court-martial in the case of Wm. Slater, who in his judgment did his duty like a good soldier in refusing to be disarmed while on his post as a sentinel, and therefore remits the punishment to which he was sentenced, and orders him to be released; it is not at all doubted but Slater's misbehavior merited punishment, and it is recommended to any officer hereafter who may have occasion to make an example of a soldier on his post as a sentry, to have him first released. Those prisoners in charge for petty offences, whom the commanding officer of the corps find it too much trouble to have tried by their own court-martial, are ordered to be released. Six commissioned officers & a field officer as president are ordered to inquire into a complaint exhibited of a very serious nature by Lieut. Willson of the 2nd Battalion; it is hoped the gentlemen will take uncommon pains to inform themselves of every particular & report fully, as the Commandant is desirous of adjusting every grievance those under his command may have to complain of, as far as in his power. Mr. Willson's letter on the subject will be laid before the court for their information, on applying for that purpose.

LETTER BOOK

OF

Governor Samuel Elbert,

FROM

JANUARY, 1785, to NOVEMBER, 1785.

OF
GOVERNOR SAMUEL ELBERT,
From January, 1785, to November, 1785.

Council Chamber, Savh., 16th Feby., 1785.

To Colonel John Baker, or Officer Commanding the Liberty County Militia.

Sir:—I have the honor to enclose you copies of an information received this day, and of a resolve of the Honorable the House of Assembly thereon.

I am instructed by the Executive Council to request that you will immediately, on the receipt of this letter, take the most effectual means to secure the villains who are at this time assembled between St. Illa and St. Marys Rivers, with a number of negroes, horses & other property supposed to have been stolen from the Citizens of these States.

The number of the banditti assembled as above are supposed to be about twenty-five men, and probably a few more will join them, as the Spaniards in East Florida are making severe example of all such who fall into their hands, and I think it will be a happy circumstance if you can fall in with them, as it will nearly put a stop to any further trouble to this State from that quarter.

Captain Cone, Major Carr, and a few more volunteers from this place, will immediately join you on this service—they are now preparing for the purpose.

You will please make an exact return of the men employed on this expedition, with every expense attending the same, in order that the necessary provision may be made for the payment thereof, agreeable to a resolution of the Assembly.

I most heartily wish success to the enterprise, and am, with sentiments of esteem and regard, Dear Sir,

Your most obedt. servt.,

S. E.

From Govr. Elbert.

To George Walton, Esquire, Wilkes County.

Savh., March 10th, 1785.

Sir:—I received your letter of the 2nd Instant, covering one from John Crutchfield with a talk from the Cherokees, and I send under cover to you a letter to Mr. Crutchfield, with an answer inclosed, which I beg you will forward to him.

It is a pity that the people on our Frontiers will behave so cruelly towards those poor Savages; not contented with having their lands, but to rob, beat and abuse them likewise, is enough to bring down divine vengeance on their heads. Did they but reflect that the blood of some poor women & children, who might suffer in consequence of such conduct, will undoubtedly lay at their doors, it would surely deter them, and I think it is the duty of every good citizen to make severe example of such notorious offenders, if by any means it can be done. As we are to have a talk some time in the Spring with the Creeks I think it will be best to have the Cherokees at the same time. I am, Sir,

Your very obedt. servt.,

S. E.

Letter to Mr. John Crutchfield, Cherokees.

Savannah, March 10th, 1785.

Sir:—Inclosed is a short talk in answer to that which I received under cover from Mr. Walton, to the Kings, Head Men and Warriors of the twelve Cherokee towns. I wish you could have attended yourself as I could have been better informed what the Indians really wish, by asking many questions of you.

It appears that their principal complaint is against a set of out layers who rob, beat and abuse them. I wish that some of the white people in the Nation could contrive to be present when these matters are transacted, so as to be able to give evidence against such villains on their being prosecuted; provided some white men were present the Indians should tie and bring them to the nearest Justice of the Peace, when on the evidence of the white person they could be committed to gaol; the Inhabitants in general would be glad to see this done, and it would serve to convince the Indians that it was not their wish to ill-use or oppress them. Pray explain these matters, and tell the Indians that as we are to have a meeting some time this Spring with some of the Creeks about establishing a boundary line. I will let them know, that they can come down at the same time, when we will hear all their talks, and if in our power redress their grievances, and if a proper person can be had he will be empowered to superintend and give & receive talks in behalf of this State. I am, Sir,

Yr. obedt. servt.,

S. ELBERT.

The following talk was sent with the foregoing Letters:

To the Kings, Head Men and Warriors of the twelve towns in the Cherokee Nation called Tazontee, Sautee, Newcussee, Corwee, Naucuee, Waltoger, Tomotla, Tallogua, Nottolee, Cooser, Bufferter, and the Frogtown:

Friends and Brothers: I received the talk you sent me, by our beloved friend, Mr. John Crutchfield, with a string of beads which you sent—a token of your friendship & respect to me and the people of Georgia. The beloved talk which you sent to me by him I received with an open heart which I always had for my friends & Brothers, the Cherokees, ever since we took each other by the hand in Augusta. I well remember at the time you gave us some land for our Warriors and People to sit down upon after they had beat the English King and his Soldiers. We promised to be ready at all times to hear your talks and to redress your grievances as much as we had power to do. I am sorry if you have anything to complain of at present; they must be bad men indeed who trouble you; their numbers must be very small as I know all the great men and Warriors in Georgia love their friends & Brothers, the Cherokees, and wont suffer them to be hurt; and if they can find out who it is that steal your horses & skins, & beat and abuse you in the Woods, they will make them suffer for it. I wish you could get some of our white men, who you know, as witnesses, who understand how to read in our books, to come and tell me the names of any of the bad people who oppress you, and I will take care to make examples of them. We all remember the line that was to be marked, between you & us, and none of our people will be suffered to go over it. & as we intend to have a talk with the Creek people this summer about the line between them & us, we will take the same time to meet you, in order that you may tell us what you want to say. When the time is fixed upon I will send a talk and let you know, and then we will agree about who shall be appointed to superintend and give talks from Georgia and your Nation.

To the Kings, Head Men & Warriors of the Creek Nation.

Friends and Brothers: The talk which you sent in June last to my Brother, our late Governor, was laid by him before the Head Men of this State at their last meeting; it lay a long time open on the table; they gave it a full consideration and have desired me to send this talk to you in their names in answer thereto, and to assure you that they wish to hold you by the hand and keep the path open and straight between our two Countries, and that the chain of friendship should be made brighter than ever and hold so fast that it might never again be tarnished.

Friends: The War is now over, we have sheathed our swords and are at peace with all the World; you gave us land for our Warriors to rest upon, and we are satisfied we have opened a trade with you and will send as many goods to your Nation as you stand in need of.

Brothers, attend: When our Head Men were considering your talk, they found that paper alone was not sufficient to mark the Line on, between us, to prevent bad people from going over it, and therefore to convince you of their sincerity and good intentions, they directed me to choose three beloved Men on our part and to request that you will choose beloved Men on your part, to meet on the very ground and there hold a talk together and set up posts and mark trees and stones and drink out of the waters that lay on the line which you shall agree upon to be the boundary between you and us, and when this is done, no Land on your side of that Line shall be touched by our people on any pretence whatever, and if any should have been marked on the trees blazed it shall go for nothing; and those who did it, if we can find them out, shall be made example of.

Friends and Brothers: Let me intreat that you open your ears to this talk, and that you will as soon as convenient appoint beloved Men and fix a day and place where our beloved Men, which I have already appointed, shall meet with yours to proceed on this business, which I pray the great Master of Breath to smile upon, and grant that it may be a means of cementing our friendship and preventing the spilling of blood.

House of Assembly, Feby. 7th, 1785.

To His Excellency, the Governor of So. Carolina.

Savannah, 28th Feby., 1785.

Sir:—The letter which I had the honor to receive from your Excellency by express, inclosing the resolutions of 21st & 22nd Instant of both branches of your Legislature, I will lay before the Legislature of this State immediately on their next meeting.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

His Excellency, Richard Henry Lee, Esqr., President of Congress.

Savannah, 5th May, 1785.

Sir:—Your letters of the 24th December and 21st Jany last I had the honor to receive a few days after the Assembly had adjourned. They shall be laid before our Legislature immediately on their next meeting, and I rest satisfied that such measures will then be taken as may fully answer the wish of Congress.

This letter will be handed your Excellency by Major Habersham and Mr. Baldwin, two of the Delegates to Congress from this State.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

S. E.

The Honble. William Houstoun, Esquire, Delegate to Congress from the State of Georgia. New York.

Savannah, 5th May, 1785.

Sir:—Your letters of the 21st January & 8th March I have had the honor to receive. I have not the least doubt but our Legislature at their next meeting will fully come into the 5 per cent. impost recommended by Congress, and when this measure takes place

I flatter myself the situation of a Georgia Delegate at Congress will be more agreeable than yours at present appears to be; in the mean time Major Habersham and Mr. Baldwin have generously undertaken to ease you of part of your present burthen.

I have the honor to be, &c.,
S. E.

The Honble. John Jay, Esquire, Secretary of Foreign Affairs, New York.

Savh., 5th May, 1785.

Sir:—I had the honor to receive your letter of the 29th last January which will be laid before the Legislature of this State when they next meet.

Sensible of the influence of our domestic or our foreign affairs, it shall be my study to afford you, from time to time, such information on this head as may be deemed necessary for your department.

I have directed the State Secretary to prepare a copy of our Laws which shall be forwarded to you by next opportunity, should they be too late for the present.

I have the honor to be, &c.,
S. E.

The Honbl. Major General, The Baron De Steuben, at New York.

Savannah, 5th May, 1785.

Dear Sir:—From the delay occasioned by the post-office, it was but last February that I had the honor to receive your letter of the 14th October.

The eminent services which you have rendered this Country does not leave a doubt with me but ere this Congress have fully come up to your wishes.

This letter will be handed you by Major Habersham and Mr. Baldwin, Delegates to Congress from this State, and will serve to make you acquainted with those gentlemen to whom I have communicated the contents of your letter. I have their promise that they will most readily concur in any measure that may tend to your advantage.

That the remainder of your days may be passed in this Land of Liberty with ease and happiness is the sincere wish of, My dear Baron,

Your mo. obt.,
S. E.

P. S. To the Honble. Wm. Houstoun's letter of the 5th inst.

All the money that it has been in the power of the executive to collect from the ways and means pointed out by the Legislature during their last session, has been paid into the hands of Major Habersham and Mr. Baldwin, to be equally divided between you and them. I am hopeful the sum tho' small will answer your immediate demands, and you, with those gentlemen, may rest assured that I shall be attentive in collecting and forwarding to you a further sum as soon as it can possibly be collected.

Yours, &c.,
S. E.

The Honl. Monsieur De la Forest, Consul to His Most Christian Majesty, Charleston.

Savannah 16th May, 1785.

Sir:—I delayed answering your letter of the 23rd March in hopes that ere this it would have been in my power to forward the grants for the land, which our Legislature at their last meeting confirmed to His Excellency, the Count D'Estaing, together with a copy of the act of naturalizing and making a free citizen of this State that much esteemed great man. The delay in our public officers is the sole cause of their not being now sent, but you may rest assured that as soon as I can have them properly authenticated they shall be forwarded to you. The letter respecting the affair of Mr. Bayard was, as soon as received, laid before the Assembly which the great hurry of business they were engaged in prevented their deciding on.

I have the honor to be with great respect, Sir,
Yours, &c.,
S. E.

To Alexander Sample, Esquire, Cumberland Island.

Savannah, 16th May, 1785.

Sir:—I have had the honor to receive your letter of the 8th Instant by Mr. Pengree, and thank you for the information therein contained.

You will be informed by Mr. Osborne ere the receipt of this of your appointment of Magistrate to the Southern Counties of this State, and under this authority I flatter myself that you and him will be able to take such measures as will effectually rid you of the rest of villains who infest your part of this State.

I much approve of the step you have taken, and wish it may be in your power to augment the party to a sufficient number, under a prudent and determined leader, to co-operate with any troops Governor Dezespedes may order on that service, and I have no doubt but our Legislature will provide for any reasonable expense attending it.

George Armstrong I take to be the person who was lately under sentence of death in this State for forgery, and reprieved by the Legislature, and transported under the pains of forfeiting his life if ever he returned within its limits.

Mr. Pengree will deliver this to you. I am happy when such characters (who are an acquisition) come into our country, it will be my study, and as he is so near you it will be in your power, to afford him every countenance and support possible.

Please to keep me regularly informed of the situation of affairs in your district.

I have the honor to be, &ca.,

S. E.

To Colonel John Baker, in Sunbury.

Savannah, 16th May, 1785.

Dear Sir:—The bearer of this letter, William Pengree, Esquire, I beg leave to introduce to your acquaintance; he is a gentleman of character and property who has long been a resident or in East Florida and about settling in our State. General Green has recommended him very particularly to me. As this gentleman must for some time be an alien, it is necessary for him to fall on some mode of securing a piece of vacant land on which to fix himself without a risque of it being taken from him, and I have referred him to you for advice on this head.

I have information of a gang of plunderers between St. Marys & St. Johns who have connections in this State, which makes it necessary to have something immediately done to prevent their becoming more formidable. I therefore wish to renew my former orders to you to detach a party if possible to make short work with them. Mr. Pengree can give you the particulars; and I am, with esteem & regard, Dear Sir,

Yours, &c.,

S. E.

To the Delegates from the State of Georgia in Congress.

Savannah, 18th May, 1785.

Dear Sirs:—The sudden departure of Mr. Peirce, the bearer of this letter, scarcely affords me sufficient time to let you know that by an express received last night from the Creek Country I have information that the Americans and Spaniards on the Mississippi have had two skirmishes, in consequence of which the latter have reinforced their posts up that river with twelve hundred men, and that the Americans had or were collecting in force, when it was expected something serious would take place. I am in hopes, as the accounts have come from the Indians, that they might be void of foundation; I shall, however, take every step to get the truth and give you further advice thereon. I shall forward you a bill for one hundred & fifty pounds in a few days, and you may be fully satisfied that every means in my power shall be used to keep you supplied.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To William Clark, Esquire, Mercht. Beards Bluff, Alatomaha.

Savannah, 20th May, 1785.

Dear Sir:—Your letter, inclosing several others from the Creek Nation, I received from Mr. Calowell Eastes, the express, who will deliver this to you, and I am instructed by the Council to request that you will satisfy him for his trouble; we have fixed no price with him here as it is judged you can do much better; you will likewise please to pay Mr. Durozoux thirty-five pounds, taking a receipt for each, particularly mentioning for what service, and whenever you are pleased to apply I will give you a draft on the Treasury for the whole amount.

The Council have appointed Mr. Durozoux Interpreter for the State in the Creek Nation, and I have no doubt from the recommendations we have had of him but he will do us justice.

We have fixed as the most proper place for the meeting the Scull Shoals on the Oconie River, and unless McGilvary does I see nothing to prevent the business terminating to the satisfaction of both parties; our Commissioners won't go to the Nation, and as the running the Line is more the advantage to the Indians than to ourselves, they need not expect great presents, and therefore 'tis expected that but few will attend.

I think it possible—but should you get proper accounts of any difference between the Americans and Spaniards on the Mississippi, I beg you will give me immediately information of it.

I am, &c.,

P. S. Since writing the above Mr. Cadwell Eastes has requested an order on Mr. Clay's store for the last service, which I gave him; you therefore have only to settle with for the first service agreeable to your engagements.

To the Honl. Benjamin Hawkins, Esqr., Charleston.

Savannah, June 3rd, 1785.

Sir:—I had the honor to receive your letter of the 27th May by Mr. Read. I received a few days since official information from Congress of their appointment of Commissioners to treat with the Cherokees and all the Indians south of them, and think Georgia particularly fortunate in having one of her citizens at the head of that business, in which she is so much interested, especially as Congress did not intend to place her in quite so good a footing as the other States who are in some degree concerned. I had accounts from the Creek Nation the other day; they have not yet agreed on a time for meeting the Commissioners from our State; when they do I shall inform you of it and will be glad to have your opinion whether the appointment from Congress will interfere with your proceeding on the business as one of our Commissioners. I believe Genl. McIntosh will decline serving.

I have the honor to be, with much esteem & regard, &c.

To the Honl. Benjamin Hawkins, Esqr., Charleston.

Savannah, June 9th 1785.

Sir:—I did myself the honor of writing you on the 3rd Inst., which I have no doubt ere this you have received; since then I have information that the Deputies from the Creek Nation for holding a treaty with the Commissioners appointed on behalf of the State, to establish a boundary line between them and us, are on their way down and may be expected in Savannah in five or six days from this.

Inclosed is an extract from the minutes of Council of this day, and also of a letter received from Mr. Durouzeaux, Indian Interpreter, which are forwarded by express in hopes that you will not be so far engaged in other business as to prevent your immediate attendance on the present occasion. I have the honor to be with much esteem, Sir,

Your mo. obt.,

S. E.

To Colonel Elijah Clarke, Wilkes County.

Savannah, June 9th, 1785.

Sir:—Colonel Hawkins promised to inform you that the Council had made choice of you as one of the Commissioners for holding a treaty with the Creek Indians in order to establish a boundary between them and the State agreeable to the act of Assembly passed the 22nd February last for the purpose.

Inclosed are several papers which will give you further information on that head.

Very unexpectedly I received intelligence yesterday that the Deputies from the Indian Nation would be at Beards Bluff on the 11th Inst, with a request that we would have provisions ready for them. This being a matter entirely out of our power, and no means of transporting the necessary articles for the Treaty to that place, induced the Council to give directions to bring them directly to Savannah, where I expect they will be in the course of five or six days, and therefore send this per express to request that you will not fail of giving immediate attendance here; it is a business of the first consequence to the State, and should not be delayed, especially as the Commissioners from Congress will shortly be on the same errand, and if we get thro' with this before they commence, it may be a capital point gained.

Should it, unfortunately, so happen that you can't attend, I beg you will send me word by express, in order that another may be appointed in your stead.

I have the honor to be, with esteem & regard, Sir,

Yours, &c.,

To the Honorable William Houstoun, John Habersham & Abraham Baldwin, Esquires, Delegates to Congress from the State of Georgia, New York.

Savannah, 9th June, 1785.

Gentlemen:—My last letter to you was of 18th last month. Since then I have not had any further accounts from the Mississippi.

The Tallisee King and the Fat King with a few other, in behalf of their Nation, will be in town in a few days, to meet our Commissioners, and I am in hopes that the boundary line between us and the Indians will be fixed before the Commissioners appointed by Congress can enter upon their business. How far the latter may affect Georgia is at present uncertain, but I think she has been insulted by not having a Commissioner appointed from the State for treating with the Cherokees, and all other Indians southward of them, tho' Mr. Houstoun informed Congress at the time how much she was interested therein. It may not be improper for you to take up this matter again, and, if it appears necessary, to enter a general protest against their proceedings in a business in which we were refused a representation.

Georgia never at any one period stood more in need of a spirited and firm representation in Congress than at present, and I feel happy when I reflect that she has there, at this time, gentlemen who will guard her honor and who dare to vindicate her wrongs. The conduct of a neighboring State makes it necessary to be watchful; nor do I think that one of you can possibly withdraw while Congress are sitting.

The Executive adjourn on the 14th to meet in Augusta, the 28th Instant, there to remain for three months. I request that you will keep me regularly informed of every matter that requires immediate attention, and as you know the expense and disadvantage of a call of the House, be decided when you write on that subject, as the whole will depend on the advices we may receive from you; if you judge it necessary, urge it; if otherwise, say so.

You may rely that I will use every means I can to keep you fully supplied with cash, and I have now the pleasure to inclose, to be equally divided amongst you, Joseph Clay, Esqr.'s bill on Cox and Frazier of Philadelphia for forty-three pounds 15, Sterling, and also Owens & Thomson's bill on Hugh Newbigging & Co., Philadelphia, for one hundred and fifty pounds Sterling, a further sum will in a few days be remitted you by Mr. Clay, via New York, on which he advises Major Habersham by this conveyance, to cause the necessary insurance to be made.

I have the honor to be, with real regard, Gentlemen.

Exchange £43. 15 0 Sterling.

Savannah, the 6th May, 1785.

Gentlemen:—Thirty days after sight of this my first of exchange, second and third of the same tenor and date not paid, pay to the Honl. Jno. Habersham, Esquire, or order, the sum of forty three pounds, fifteen shillings sterling, for value received from the State of Georgia, which charge to account as pr. advice from, gentlemen,

Your most obedient servt.,

To Messrs. Hugh Newbigging & Co., Merchants, Philadelphia.

To the Honorable William Houstoun, Esquire, Delegate to Congress from the State of Georgia, New York.

Savannah, 9th June, 1785.

Sir:—Your letters of the 14th Feby. & 2nd April I had the honor to receive, the later on the 9th & the former on the 21st last month. I have also received the Journals of Congress and their resolutions of 15th March respecting the appointment of Comrs. to treat with the Cherokees and all other Indians southward of them, and likewise, which I have caused to be published in the Gazette of the State, the Proclamation of Congress of the 2nd Feby. and their resolutions of the 23rd Feby. and 17th March.

It is with justice that you complain of want of information from the State, which I could not have expected to be the case, as the House immediately on their appointment of you and choice of other Delegates, appointed a committee to draw up instructions for them, whose duty I judge it to be to write to you, and I assure you that during the time of a long and tedious session, and for a considerable time after their adjournment, I was kept in the dark with respect any matters you should have been made acquainted with, and you may depend, sir, that I never had the most distant wish to make your situation either in Congress or any where else disagreeable; the sacrifice you have made I am fully sensible of, and I think your country stands bound in gratitude to make you full and ample compensation. You will find from my letter to the Delegates what I have been able to remit by this conveyance, and you may fully confide in my making every exertion to place you on a respectable footing in Congress, where I hope you will remain, and with the assistance of your colleagues place Georgia once more on an equal footing with her Sister States.

I have the honor to be with sentiments of the most perfect regard and esteem, Sir, &c.

To the Honorable Major General McIntosh.

Savannah, June 8th, 1785.

Dear Sir:—I have just received information that the Deputies from the Creek Nation for holding a Treaty with the Commissioners appointed by the State to ascertain the boundary line between the Indians and Georgia, are on their way down and will be at Beards Bluff by the 11th Instant.

As you have been named one of the Commissioners, I wish you as immediately as possible in order to fix on some plan of proceeding.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To the same.

Savannah, 13th June, 1785.

Sir:—I have the honor to inclose you an extract from the minutes of Council of the 9th instant, and as I expect the Indian Chiefs will be in Savannah, in a few days will be glad to see you as soon as possible, in order to have matters put in a proper train for their reception.

I have sent expresses for Colonel Clark & Colo. Hawkins and have no doubt but they will both be in town in all this week.

I have the honor to be, with much esteem, &c.

To Seth John Cuthbert, Esqr., Public Treasury.

Augusta, July 13th, 1785.

Sir:—The inclosed pamphlet, containing a state of the duties payable by vessels of the United States of America in the ports of Marseilles, Bayonne, L'Orient, and Dunkirk, has just been received from the office of foreign affairs, which I am instructed by Council to request that you will have published in a manner the least burthensome to the State; probably the printer may find it to his interest to take it on his own account, in which case, on his engaging to print it directly, let him have it. If he declines, I am of opinion the merchants would pay the expense, but if neither of these modes will do please inform me by the first opportunity what Mr. Johnston will charge the public for a few copies.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedt. & very huml. servt.,

S. E.

To the Honbl. the Delegates in Congress from the State of Georgia.

Savh., June 21st, 1785.

Genn:—Inclosed is a copy of my last letter to you which covers Joseph Clay's, Esqr., second bill on Cox & Frazer for £ 43. 15 and Owens and Thompson's second bill on Hugh Newbigging & Co. for £150 to serve on failure of the first.

I have the honor also to inclose copy of a letter just received from Timo. Barnard. I am afraid a talk sent to the Nation by the Congress Commissioners has been the means of preventing the Indians meeting us agreeable to their appointment, nor I suppose we shall be able now to do anything with them until the general treaty, which they have appointed to be held some time in September in Galphintown, a few miles above the Old town on Great Ogeechee. These genn. have made a requisition of two thousand dollars from the State, for the purpose of forwarding this business, which we have not the ability to comply with.

The latter part of Mr. Barnard's letter is in some degree a confirmation of the report I sometime since mentioned to you of a misunderstanding between the Americans and Spaniards on the river Mississippi.

By this conveyance Mr. Clay will remit you one hundred and fifty pounds Sterg. which I placed in his hands for the purpose. and I expect shortly to send you a further sum of two or three hundred dollars. I am truly anxious to hear from you; and have the honor to be, with sentiments of the highest esteem, Genn.,

Your most obedt. servt.,

To Charles Crawford, Garratt Irvine and Arthur Fort, Esquires, a Committee to examine Land Certificates, &c., &c.

Augusta, July 15th, 1785.

Gentlemen:—I have the honor to transmit you an extract from the Journals of the Honl. House of Assembly of the 20th last February, respecting your appointment for the purpose of "inquiring into the conduct of those who were appointed to issue certificates for bounty warrants, and of all others who have issued such certificates; and also into the conduct of the Surveyors and persons who have been appointed to survey the land in the Counties of Washington and Franklin."

It appears to me that many irregularities have taken place in this business, and your interposition may be immediately necessary to prevent encroachments on the Indian hunting grounds, contrary to the intent of the Legislature. I therefore recommend that you do as soon as possible enter upon the inquiry, and I am instructed by the Council to assure you that they will at all times be ready and willing to afford you every countenance and support in their power.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To the Honl. Benjamin Hawkins, Andrew Pickens and Joseph Martin, Esquires, Commissioners appointed by Congress to treat with the Cherokees & all other Indians southward of them, Charleston.

Augusta, 20th July, 1785.

Gentlemen:—Your letter of the 10th June I had the honor to receive on the 5th Inst. and as soon as we were able to make a Council after our removal to this place I laid the same before them which they have fully considered, and I am instructed to assure you that however inclined they may be to forward the Treaty you purpose to hold with the Creeks on the third Monday in next September at Galphintown on the Ogeechee in this State, it is entirely out of their power to comply even in part with the requisition you make of two thousand dollars to be paid by the second Monday in October next.

It lays altogether with the Legislature to appropriate the public money, and when they meet, which I don't expect will be before next January, I will lay your letter before them.

The guard you require shall be furnished, and it is probable we will appoint one or more persons to attend during the Treaty, as Congress has been so very kind as to indulge the State with that privilege.

I have the honor to be, with sincere esteem, Genn.,

The Commissioners of Confiscated Estates for the State of Georgia.

Augusta, 20th July, 1785.

Gentlemen:—The Council having duly considered the matters are unanimously of opinion that it will be more to the advantage of the public to divide the sales of the lands you last advertised, and have therefore instructed me to desire that you will on the day you have mentioned sell in Savannah all the confiscated lands in Effingham, Chatham, Liberty, Glynn and Camden Counties, and that immediately on the rect. of this you fix o.1 a day and give notice that such of the lands as lays in Burke, Richmond & Wilkes Counties will be sold in the town of Augusta, taking care to reserve such pieces of land as may be the most likely to command specie, should it be necessary on any emergency to raise cash, agreeable to the instructions you last received from the Board.

It hitherto has been a custom to accept of any person who may be offered as a security for the payment of the interest to the public as it becomes due, whereby they are like to be great looses; you are therefore hereby positively instructed not to accept of any person who may be offered as security hereafter for the payment of interest to the public, unless it appears to you that they are citizens of the State, and that they have visible property on the same fully sufficient to discharge any sum or sums of money they may become indebted to the public for, and you must take particular care to express the words of the Act in the bonds taken for the principal, so that it may be properly understood, that in case the money is not punctually paid in year from the day of sale, in either audited or funded certificates of the State, the whole amount will be receivable in nothing else but gold or silver coin.

I have the honor to be, Genn.,

To Chesly Bostick, Esquire, Spirit Creek.

Augusta, 19th July, 1785.

Sir:—I am sorry to be informed by the rect. of your letter of this date that a boat is now on the river intended for this place, with the small pox on board; I am certain that at this season of the year it would much injure the inhabitants if suffered to spread, and therefore request that you will make application to a justice of the peace, nearest to where boat may be, to cause her to be stopped and a proper person, or two, who have had the disorder, hired to attend upon the people infected till they are sufficiently rid of the complaint to be admitted at large amongst the inhabitants. This appears to me to be the most ready and effectual mode, and I think will be a proper upon the owner of the boat; but should the Laws of the State not make 'em chargeable with the expenses, I will provide a payment.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To James Jackson, Esquire, Mercht., London.

Augusta, August 5th, 1785.

Sir:—The inclosed will serve to explain to you the necessity I am under of requesting that you will take the trouble to procure and send me by the earliest opportunity, in order that I might lay them before the Legislature of this State immediately on their next meeting, properly authenticated copies of the several charters, deeds and proclamations respecting that business which have taken place at the time and since Georgia was erected into a separate Government.

General Oglethorpe may yet be living, & I am certain he would readily explain on oath what he understood to be the boundary between Georgia & South Carolina.

Sir James Wright & the Honl. Grey Elliott, Esquire, it is probable will assist you with their advice & information on this head, and I beg that you will use every means in your power to furnish me with the fullest information possible, and the expense shall be immediately remitted you.

To the Chevalier De Chateaufort, Consul of France, at Charleston.

Augusta, 5th August, 1785.

Sir:—I had the honor to receive your letter of the 24th June, with its inclosures of the 17th May last, from the Office of Foreign Affairs with an Act of Congress of the 11th of the same month, recognizing you as Consul from His most Christian Majesty for the states of No. Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia, to reside ordinarily at Charleston.

I have now the pleasure of transmitting to you an exequator or notification of your quality as such for the State of Geoa., which I have caused to be published in the Gazettes.

I shall be happy in uniting with you in every measure which may tend to the mutual advantage of commerce between France and this State.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To Mr. Gobert, Agent to the French Navy, Savanh.

Augusta, August 5th, 1785.

Sir:—I had the honor to receive your letter of the 14th of July last, with its several inclosures, which have been attended to; and by this conveyance you will receive a letter for Chevalier de Chatau-fort, inclosing an exequator of his quality as Consul for this State, which I request you will forward to him by the first safe conveyance; a copy of the exequator I have sent to Mr. Johnston in order that he might publish it in his Gazette.

Mr. De la Forest has been very polite in paying such respect to my recommendation of Mr. McQueen, which I am confident he merits, and I hope that gentleman will not delay in delivering to the Vice Admiral, the Count D'Estaing, the papers committed to his charge and which that worthy character is so anxious to receive.

You may rest assured that I shall ever be happy in forwarding your interests, & I beg that you will obtain from the Chevalier de Chataufort the appointment you mention, and also a letter from him to me signifying the same, & I will not delay in confirming it.

With respect to the affair of Mr. Bayard, it lays solely with the Legislature, which you must lay before them at their next meeting.

To Mr. James Durouzeaux, Interpreter to the State at Cowetas.

Augusta, August 18th, 1785.

Sir:—I received two letters from you dated last month to which I have not time just now to reply fully; this will serve to inform you that the Comrs. appointed by Congress to treat on peace and other matters relative to the United States of America with the several nations of Indians to the southward, have appointed to meet the Creek Indians at Galphintown on Great Ogeechee on the third Monday in September next, and have sent a talk and invited the Head Men & Warriors of all the upper & lower towns to be there at that time, when a talk from the United States will be delivered by them, and, as it will be a very proper opportunity for the Commissioners from our State to have the line fixed between us and them, I request that you will do all you can to bring them to that place & time, and not the Scull Shoals as I last wrote you, as one general meeting will answer every purpose and save the State much expense. I beg that you will attend the meeting, as Interpreter to the State, and it may be something in your way to interpret for the other Commrs. I request that you will inform both the upper & lower Creeks of this, and leave nothing undone to bring them down.

I am Sir, &c.,

To Colonel Lewis, or Officer Commanding the Burke County Regiment of Militia.

Augusta, 31st August, 1785.

Sir:—I have the honor to transmit you a resolution of Council of this date, and I desire that you do pay immediate and strict obedience thereto.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

In Council, 16th September, 1785.

Sir:—I have just had the honor to receive a latter dated the 14th Inst. from General Pickens, one of the Commissioners appointed by Congress to treat with the Cherokees and all other Indians southward of them, in which he writes as follows, viz: "The Treaty with the Creeks is to begin the 24th October next at Galphintown, on Ogechee, and with the other tribes the 15th Nov. at or near Seneca. The Guard which the Commrs. mentioned to your Excellency in June last I make no doubt they will be under obligations to you for at the time now appointed, and would wish twenty of them mounted, with a careful Officer."

You are therefore hereby ordered to govern yourself accordingly, and in place of the third Monday in this month have the detachment ready on the spot on the 24th of next October, and twenty of them mounted, with a careful Officer, when and where they are to act agreeable to my former order.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To Colonel Lewis, or Officer Commanding the Burke Militia.

To the Honorable Edward Telfair & Willm. Few, Esqrs.

Auga., 5th September, 1785.

Sirs:—I have just had the honor to receive a letter from our Delegates in Congress dated the 10th Augst., in which they write as follows, viz: "We shall expect Mr. Telfair and Colo. Few at the end of our six months' tour agreeable to promise, as two of us shall be under the necessity of returning. We hope they will not fail to be punctual, as it is a matter of much importance that the State should not again be without a representation."

I expect that the gentlemen will date the commencement of their tour from the beginning of May, and as you must be fully sensible of the force of their observation, "that the State should not again be without a representation," I am hopeful that one or both of you will immediately proceed to Congress.

I have a bill on New York for four hundred dollars with which you can be immediately furnished, and steps will be taken to supply you with a further sum.

Augusta, 14th September, 1785.

Gentn:—Your letters of the 5th May & 12th Augst. I have the honor to receive.

Mr. Job Sumner, who you have nominated as Commissioner of Public Accounts for this State, I make not the least doubt is in every respect worthy the appointment, especially as he was recommended by Mr. Houstoun, and, as this gentleman is a stranger in this State, I presume it would have been improper to have appointed a citizen in preference.

Every co-operation on the part of the State which may be necessary for the execution of his office, Mr. Sumner may be fully assured he will experience.

It is to be lamented that Messrs. O'Bryen and Wade have been so very erroneous in their calculation of the interest due on loan office certificates as to prevent their interest certificates being received in any Continental Requisition, as both the public and individuals must be injured thereby.

I will lay your letter on this subject before the Legislature immediately on their next meeting.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To Charles Thomson, Esquire, Secy. of Congress.

Augusta, 19th September, 1785.

Sir:—Your several dispatches of the 15th & 30th April, 28 & 31 May, 2d & 9th June, 28th July, and 3d & 9th August, with their inclosures, and the Journals of Congress, I have now an opportunity of acknowledging the receipt of; the most of them came to hand at one time, occasioned by there being no regular post to Savannah, and none to this place; they will be laid before the Legislature as soon as they meet.

I have given directions to our State Secretary to furnish you with thirteen copies of each of the Acts of the Assembly of this State since the first Sepr., 1774, inclusive, that are in print.

I have the honor to be, &c.,
S. E.

To the Honl. Major Genl. McIntosh.

Augusta, September 19th, 1785.

Sir:—Your two letters respecting the reserve lands to the southward have been received and due attention paid to them.

Captain Montford acknowledges that two hundred acres on the south & one hundred on the north points of Cumberland Island, and the east point on the north side of St. Marys river, was surveyed previous to the rect. of an order of Council to the contrary, but care will be taken that the works shall not pass into a grant before the meeting of the Legislature.

So little attention has hitherto been paid to this particular, that every acre of the lands that were reserved for the public are in the back country has been taken up, & has now become private property. Quere: as these grants have been surreptitiously obtained, whether the Assembly would not be justified in declaring them to be null and void?

I have the honor to be, &c.,
S. E.

To Captain Montfort, Surveyor of the Counties of Glynn and Camden.

Augusta, 19th September, 1785.

Sir:—Your letter of the 25th August has been just received, and I desire that you will prevent the two surveys on Cumberland, and the one at the east point on the north side of St. Marys river, being returned to the Surveyor General's office.

Inclosed is a copy of a letter from General McIntosh, with its inclosures, by which you will be informed of the exact situation and quantity of the reserve on Butter Milk Bluff, and also of the particular numbers of the lots in Brunswick that were reserved for the public, which you are not to suffer to be laid out for an individual.

Your observations respecting the immediate advantage to the inhabitants by laying out a town at Butter Milk Bluff are just, and I feel the full force of them, but it can only be done by the Legislature, before whom I will lay your letter when they next meet.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To His Excellency, The Governor of East Florida.

Augusta, 19th September, 1785.

Sir:—His Honor the Chief Justice of our State has applied to me to request that your Excellency will give orders to have Theophilus Hill, a most audacious murderer, apprehended and secured. The inclosed copy of an information will serve more particularly to explain that cruel affair, & I flatter myself that a determination of your Excellency and the Executive of this State not to suffer such notorious offenders to have an asylum with either will have a most happy tendency to prevent such horrid deeds in future.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

To His Excellency, Vice Admiral the Count D'Estaing, in France.

Augusta, in Georgia, 26th Sept., 1785.

Sir:—It affords me singular satisfaction that I have the honor of transmitting to your Excellency grants for twenty thousand acres of land, and an Act of the Legislature confirming the same to you, and admitting you to all the priviledges, liberties and immunities of a free citizen of this State, in testimony of their respect for your meritorious services.

These papers are committed to the charge of John McQueen, Esquire, a citizen of Georgia, who expects to have the honor of delivering them to your Excellency in person. I therefore take the liberty of recommending this gentleman to your polite attention, from whom you will be able to obtain some information respecting the situation and quality of your lands in this State.

Mr. McQueen is possessed of a very valuable estate on our Sea Board, which abounds with the best live oak for ship building; should he make any contracts for the supply of that article, his property in this country will enable him fully to come up to his engagements.

I have the honor to be, &c.,

The Honl. Major Genl. McIntosh.

Augusta, 28th Sept., 1785.

Sir:—I am informed that you have been appointed by Congress one of the Commrs. for treating with the Cherokees and all other Indians southward of them, and wish to know from you whether that appointment will deprive the State of your acting as their Comr. in having the temporary boundary line marked between us and the Creek Indians, as in that event the Council might have an opportunity of filling the vacancy with some other gentleman in order that the State Comrs. may take the advantage of transacting their business at the time of the general Treaty, at Galphinton, on the 24th of the next month.

In a letter of the 22nd Inst. from Colo. Hawkins he requests that we may appoint a person in his stead for the completion of this business.

I have the honor to be, &c.

To the Honorable William Houstoun, John Habersham and Abraham Baldwin, Esquires, New York.

Augusta, 14th September, 1785.

Gentlemen:—Your two letters of the 8th July and 10th August I have had the honor to receive.

I am glad to find a disposition in the Spanish Court to be on so friendly a footing with us, and flatter myself that Mr. Jay will be able to adjust matters with don Diego de Gardoque in such a manner as to remove any further cause of jealousy between the United States and Spain.

The Commissioners appointed by Congress to treat with the Cherokees and all other Indians southward of them are to have a meeting with the Creeks, on the 24th next month, at Galphinton, on Great Ogeechee, and with the other tribes on the 15th November, at or near Seneca, in South Carolina. They have made a demand from this State of two thousand dollars, and an hundred men as a Guard; the first was entirely out of our power to comply with, the latter will be granted. The Honorable Edward Telfair, William Few, Esquire, and Colonel James Jackson, are appointed by our board to attend at the meeting, with instructions to aid and assist the Commissioners in forwarding this business as far as they are authorized by the Confederation to go; and they are further instructed to protest against any measures which they may adopt contrary to the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution and Laws of the State. I have not the least doubt but matters will be conducted in such a manner as will be pleasing, and that our State Commissioners will be able at the same time to have the temporary boundary line agreed on marked between us and the Savages—and what's greatly to be wished for.

The time fixed by Congress for entering on the business respecting the disputed territory between this State and South Carolina, will afford our Legis. sufficient leisure to take it under consideration, and least we might be unprepared with proper vouchers, I have wrote to London for properly authenticated copies of all the Charters, Deeds, proclamations, &c., which have taken place respecting that business from the first establishment of Georgia to the time of resolution.

I feel the full force of your observations respecting the settlement of the federal accounts, which, if much longer delayed, must place the State in a situation truly contemptible and distressing. Mr. Sumner who you have appointed for this purpose may be fully assured that the Executive of the State will afford him every assistance in their power which may be necessary in the Execution of his office, and as our Auditor is remarkable attentive to his duty, I am hopeful they will be in such forwardness by the meeting of the Legislature as to enable that body to take measures which may have the most salutary effects.

New York and Rhode Island, being in a similar situation with Georgia, respecting the impost, and as it would have been attended with great expense to the State and much injury to the individual members, the Council were induced to give up the idea of a call of the House before the time of their annual meeting.

You, gentlemen, must be so sensible of the necessity of our State being fully represented in Congress at this time that I hope, and have to intreat, that neither of you will return until some other arrives to take your seat. Colonel Few has promised to set out on the first of November; Mr. Telfair's indisposition will not admit of his attendance. I have wrote to Mr. Gibbons on the subject, but have not yet had his answer.

I have a draft on New York for four hundred dollars, which, with a further sum that I am in expectation of receiving, will be remitted you shortly.

The freshes have considerably damaged the crops on the rivers, and a drouth in the back country has hurt the corn in such a degree that more than half a crop of that article won't be made; this will bear hard on the new settlers, as it must occasion a high price for corn and other provisions; the rice crops are, in general, very good.

The Council are to adjourn on the 12th, to meet in Savannah on the 20th October, when I shall in addition to a bill of four hundred dollars which I have already engaged make you a further remittance.

I have the honor to be with the highest regard and esteem, Gentlemen,

Your most obt. & very humble servant,
S. E.

To the Honorable Major General Wayne.

Augusta, 7th October, 1785.

Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 14th September came to hand on the 21st of the same month which for want of an opportunity has not been sooner answered; the letter of the 20th August, of which you inclosed a copy, I have never had the honor to receive.

I think the conduct of the gentlemen you mention is extraordinary and very unaccountable in running within the lines of old surveys, and when the Council can be sufficiently informed to detect the fraud, they won't suffer a grant to pass, but even should they so far succeed as to obtain one where there has already been a grant, it can't avail them anything. I would advise you to enter a caveat in Liberty County against their work, and then an appeal may be brought after their determination regularly before Council, agreeable to the late Land Act.

I have the honor to be, with much esteem, Dear Sir,

Your most obedt. & Very humbl. servt.,

S. E.

To Jan Boonen Graves, Esquire, Charleston.

Savannah, 8th November, 1785.

Sir:—In pursuance of an Act of Congress of the 13th July last, which did not come to my hands until the 3rd Inst., I have the honor, to transmit you an Exequator or Notification of your Quality as Consul for their High Mightinesses, the Lords, the State Genl. of the United Netherlands for this State which I have caused to be published in this State.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

Your most Obedient and very humble servant,

S. E.

To the Honorable William Few, Esquire.

Augusta, 12th October, 1785.

Sir:—Your letter of this I have had the honor to receive. I am glad to understand that you will be ready to proceed to Congress by the first of the next month where I have every reason to expect your presence is much wanted.

I am instructed by the Council to inform you that a bill on New York for four hundred dollars is ready to be delivered to you when ever you please to call for it; a sum which they apprehend will bring about the time of the next meeting of the Legislature, when they have no doubt proper measures will be adopted to furnish you with a further supply.

I have the honor to be, with much esteem and regard, Sir,

Your most obedt. and very Humble Servant,

S. E.

To Colo. Thomas Green, in the Chicasaws.

Savannah, 9th November, 1786.

Sir:—I had the honor to receive your dispatches by Capt. Jamieson, who will deliver you this. We have paid this gent., in a drf. on the Tr., thirty pounds Sterg. in full for coming down & returning.

I am sorry to find that your situation has been made unhappy in consequence of the Bourbon business. It is not in the power of the Exe. to afford you any relief. Your letter will be laid before the Legislature when they meet, & I have no doubt they will take some measures for yr. relief; 'till then I think you will be well employed in regulating matters with the Indians so as to impress them with favorable sentiments towards this & the people of the United States.

I am, &c.,

S. E.
